

Say, Tell, Speak, Talk Test

Write Say, Tell, Speak or Talk in the correct form

1. Quan, I believe what you ____.
2. He ____ his name was Harbard.
3. There's nothing to ____.
4. I have something important to ____.
5. You wait and ____ that when we get there.
6. Did they ____ you why?
7. But we'll not ____ any more about that now.
8. We ____ that at the same time!
9. If so, I will ____ to her.
10. I'll call you tomorrow to ____ over some details.
11. Your teacher ____ me you're a wonderful artist.
12. They ____ about going to see the Squire.
13. I ____ to him tomorrow, or I go over your head.
14. I have sworn to ____ the truth.
15. I'd like to ____ something.
16. Julia ____, will you come and dine on Sunday?
17. You can only ____.
18. First I hide, then I ____ Lithuanian.
19. Oh, it was just something John ____ as a joke.
20. What did you ____ to me, Potter?
21. But my son, I am sorry to ____, confirmed her story.
22. And yet, strictly ____, I know him least of all.
23. They ____ they was FBI.

Answers to the say, tell, speak, talk test

1. said
2. said
3. tell
4. say
5. say
6. tell
7. say
8. said
9. speak
10. talk
11. told
12. said
13. speak
14. tell
15. say
16. says
17. talk
18. speak
19. said
20. say
21. say
22. speaking
23. said