FOREWORD

Human beings have always wanted to look ahead and to a large extent are capable of doing so. Of all the methods of prediction in vogue, astrology is perhaps the most ancient and the most sought for. Supremacy in the astrological field belongs to the ancient Indian sages and Acharyas who have bequeathed to us a vast literature, in the great Sanskrit language, bearing on the methods of prediction.

And one of the valuable treatises belonging to this ancient legacy is the GARGA HORA, an English translation of which by Mr. R. Santhanam is presented in these pages.

GARGA HORA enumerates a number of significant combinations, some even novel. For instance there is a combination given that Sun in the 9th in Leo deprives one of surviving co-borns. This combination is applicable to those born in Sagittarius ascendant. When the Sun is in the 9th, he aspects the 3rd ruling brothers and sisters. But there is also a hint that if one co-born exists he reaches a high position. Such important combinations appear to be a feature of this book. The effects of six planets, five planets, etc., in different Bhavas given in the book embody important principles.

Mr. Santhanam has already to his credit a number of translations of ancient astrological classics and this translation will be a welcome addition to the extant literature on Hindu astrology.

I wish him all success.

Excellent Work of Utmost Importance

Secrets of Ashtaka Varga

Dr. P.S. Sastri

This is a unique book dealing with a variety of problems related to Ashtakavarga. The luminaries and the seven planets have favourable places in transit from their natal positions. On this basis we have Bhinna and Samudaya ashtakavargas, Gochara ashtakavarga, and those arising from Grahas and Bhavas.

Next there is a method of computing longevity on this basis. This requires the trinal reduction and they are based on dual ownership. Timing of events on this system is unique.

The work opens up fresh avenues for further research and clarification. In this light Ashtakavarga for Rahu and Ascendant are given. Illustrations are given to make the subject easily understandable. The results for each Ashtakavarga are given in detail from Sarvashtakavarga. One can find the strength of the houses, complaints or ailments, happiness or sorrow, auspicious happenings and the like. These are explained in relation to the natal chart.

Transit influences in relation to Ashtakavarga indicate the timings for travels and journeys, rise or fall in career, ill health, prosperity and so on.

PREFACE

Lord Ganesa has again blessed us with His benign looks which enabled us to come to the reading public with this work of sage Garga. Sage Garga, one of the sons of Lord Brahma, compiled many works out of his intuition like Garga Samhita, Garga Hora etc. The great Varaha Mihira also quotes Garga frequently in his illustrious Brihat Samhita.

Many principles from the present work were widely quoted by Yavanas in their astrological literature. Bala Bhadra, author of Hora Ratna, has opted Garga Hora's principles from Yavana's school and has widely commented in his work. Our present translation has relied on the slokas of Bala Bhadra which slokas also find exact Tamil rendering by C.G. Rajan. In translating these slokas of Garga into English through Bala Bhadra's work, I have maintained apt originality. Exact translation of the Sanskrit slokas into English has been provided in our present effort.

The work details in the first instance important rules on predictive astrology, which were the first-hand invention of the sage, not found elsewhere to a great extent. The latter portion details effects of conjunctions of planets ranging from 2 to 7 in Lagna through the 12th bhava. The reader, it is hoped, will appreciate our humble efforts in presenting this work for the first time in the English language. I am thankful to Dr. B.V. Raman for his kind foreword.

No error has been committed wilfully in this translation. Yet if any lapses are noticed, we look forward to the readers for a lenient view.

SARAVALI

By Kalyana Varma

(Over 2500 slokas in Sanskrit and English Translation & Captious notes)

Here is a signal contribution to the field of Hindu predictive astrology by one of royal scion-Kalyana Varma.

Having lived in the 6th century A.D., after Varaha Mihira, the author ruled the zone called Vyaghrapada (now in Madhya Pradesh, India). He was not only an adept protector of his countrymen but an ace astrologer, having established close ties with works of many traditional and venerable exponents, viz Parasara, Satya, Garga, Badarayana, Varaha Mihira etc. Following his study of their literature with devotion and a deep grasp of the subject, he produced the illustrious SARAVALI.

Presented now is an English translation in two volumes which is the first-ever attempt in the Press. There is a total of 55 chapters concentrating on all important aspects of human life. After many essential preliminaries, acquainting the student with what astrology is, in the later chapters instructions of serious nature begin.

The translator R. SANTHANAM has usefully annotated each and every difficult aspect of the numerous principles profusely quoting a mammoth number of authoritative texts and has given examples etc. For this reason, every student is bound to be spell bound till the last word of the text. Throughout the lot of 800 pages of the text-, much useful and worthy information-fully devoted to the subject proper-will make one feel possessing authentic learning and astrological delight.

GARGA HORA

OF SAGE GARGA

General Principles

1. Jupiter in his own house along with Saturn and Mercury will bestow long life. Such native often will beget wealth.

Notes: Saturn along with Jupiter in Pisces or Sagittarius is conducive to long life and riches. This is more so for Sagittarius, Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces Lagnas.

2. Should Venus be in Pisces along with Jupiter and the Moon, the native will acquire kingly fortunes, and will have many sons and family.

3. Should the ascendant be in a malefic Rasi while the lord thereof occupies the 7th house and Jupiter is posited in the 8th along with the Sun, the child will die at the age of eight.

4. If Mercury and Mars be together in the ascendant or the 6th or the 8th, the native will either be a thief or will indulge in awful acts. Such a person will have defect in his hands and legs.

5. Mercury in the ascendant or the 6th or the 8th can cause death at the age of 4. Even if the native is dipped in nectar, it will be of no avail.

Note: This is only a general rule and should be carefully used.

6. Mars and Jupiter in exchange in Rasi will inflict death at the age of 12. Even though Lord Siva may desire to save the person, it is rare to escape death in such a case.

Notes: Sage Garga does not prefer exchange of houses between Jupiter and Mars and confirms that death is imminent at the age of 12 inspite of divine protection. For example, this exchange is more effective in the case of a Taurus native, being between the lords of 8 and 12. The entire horoscope should be well-scanned but over enthusiasm will lead to pitfalls.

7. Should Jupiter occupy a house of Mars identical with the 2nd, 6th or 8th from the lagna, the child doubtlessly will face death in its sixth year.

Notes: The Sage does not prefer Jupiter in the 2nd in Aries for Pisces, in 2nd in Scorpio, for Libra, in 6th in Aries for Scorpio, in 6th Scorpio for Gemini, in 8th in Scorpio for Aries and in 8th in Aries for Virgo. In such case, if other factors are not suspicious, the child may face its end in the 6th year.

8. If Rahu occupies the ascendant at birth while the Moon is in the 6th/9th, the child will die within 20 days of birth.

9. Similar effects will prevail (ie death in 20 days will occur) if Rahu is in the 4th from Lagna, while the Moon occupies one of the angles.

Notes: Rahu and the (weak) Moon in 4th can cause the end of both the mother and the child, according to some. If, however, the Moon is in other angle than the 4th, the mother is in exception.

10. Death will be inflicted by Rahu in the 7th from lagna while the Moon is in the ascendant. Even nectar will not be useful to him and the death will come to pass in the 10th year of the child.

11. If the Moon is in the 12th from Lagna while malefics are in the 6th house, the native will be shortlived. He will suffer from stomachial disorders.

Notes: If Rahu is in the 6th in the said instance, while the Moon is in the 12th, the disorder may be in the form of cancerous growth.

12. If Rahu occupies the 9th or the 10th, the native will die at 16, though Indra, Lord of Lords, may try to protect him.

Notes: Rahu in the 9th/10th is supposed to cause Rajayoga. According to the Sage, it is, however, adverse for longevity. In Rahu dasa, there may be still adverse repercussions.

13. Death will come to pass at the age of 20, if Saturn and the Sun are in exchange in Rasi.

Notes: The Sun in Aquarius or Capricorn while Saturn is in Leo causes a short life.

14. If Rahu is in the ascendant while the Moon is in the 6th (or both of them being together in the 6th) will promote diseases in the rectum, indigestion (due to lack of digestive fire) and deficiency of a limb.

Notes: Rahu's association with the Moon can cause lameness, as seen in a couple of births.

15. Death will be caused due to leprosy or tuberculosis if the Sun is in the 8th while Saturn is in the 6th.

16. If the Sun is in the ascendant at birth, the native will be subjected to mental worries and will have no place of his own.

18. The child will die instantly if Rahu is in the ascendant or in the 8th and is in aspect to the Moon; even Indra cannot save such child.

19. The native will have a life span of 100 years if two angles are occupied by Jupiter and Venus while the Sun is in the 12th and Mercury is in Lagna.

20. There will be no Arishtas i.e. evils if Jupiter is in an angle or in a trine, or in own house/exaltation house as the Lagna. This will be so throughout the life.

21. There will be no evils whatsoever if one of Jupiter, Venus and Mercury is in an angle and with positional strength.

Notes: This rule is suggestive of the fact that a single benefic with Sthana Bala in angle is enough to counteract all evils.

22. There is no evil whatsoever if Saturn happens to be in the ascendant, 3rd or the 6th and be at the same time in Libra, Aquarius or Capricorn.

23. If the 2nd from the ascendant is tenanted by Rahu, Mercury, Venus; Saturn and the Sun together, the mother will die soon. Alternatively it can be the father of the child.

Notes: Depending upon of the Karaka planet, the father or the mother may find his or her exit from this world.

24. If the Sun is in Leo or in Aries identical with the 6th or the 11th and is aspected by a friendly planet, the evils if any are simply counteracted.

25. Should Rahu be in the ascendant identical with Aries, Taurus or Cancer and be in aspect to a benefic planet, no evil exists in the horoscope.

26. Rajayoga is caused if Saturn and the Moon are in the Lagna while its trines are occupied by the Sun and Jupiter. Mars should simultaneously be in the 10th house.

Notes: According to Chamatkara Chintamani, Mars alone in the 10th will cause good Rajayoga.

27. Should the Sun be in the 9th in Leo, the native will not have surviving co-born. If, however, one exists, he becomes a king.

Notes: This applies to only Sagittarius. The Sun aspects the 3rd in the said case, which house is highly inimical to him. And he is supposed to be adverse for co-born. If a brother lives long due to other planetary factors, he enjoys Rajayoga.

28. If Rahu is in Karma Sthana i.e. the 10th house, identical with own house and in the company of Mars, Mercury and Venus, the native will sometimes prosper and yet sometimes will have downfall.

Notes: Rahu's own house has not been widely discussed in many texts. For relevant information, see my English translation of Horasara.

29. Declare that the subject is born in a mean descent if malefics are in the 2nd, Rahu is in the 3rd and Jupiter is in the 5th.

30. If the Sun etc. (i.e. other malefics) are in the 4th, 5th and 9th, the native will lose his first issue while the later ones may survive.

Notes: Malefics in the said houses are adverse for the first issue of the native.

31. Should malefics be in the 2nd along with Mars and Saturn while Rahu is in the 3rd, the co-born will not survive.

Notes: This rule does not apply to the pre-born. The 3rd house will involve only younger brothers/sisters.

32. Chatra yoga is formed if all planets are in the ascendant, 2nd, 7th and 12th. One with this yoga will become a leader of his race.

33. If the ascendant is occupied by Venus, 12th by Mercury and the 2nd by a malefic, a Rajayoga is formed, and the native becomes a king. If the Sun is in the 12th, the subject will be subjected to penury.

34. The relatives of the native will perish if the 12th and the 7th are occupied by malefics while the 2nd by benefics.

Notes: If the second has no benefic, apparently the rest of the yoga may spare the relatives.

35. There is a Rajayoga, if the Moon and Saturn are in the 2nd while Jupiter occupies Aries, and Rahu with Venus is in the 10th.

36. Should malefics be in the 2nd, 8th and 12th, the native will lose his eyes in his 8th or 12th year of age.

37. The co-born will not survive if Mars is in the 8th house. Similar effect prevails if he joins Rahu and Saturn in the 7th house.

38. Births in the end of a Tithi (lunar day), a week day, a Lagna, or in the night (?) will belong to some other (low ?) caste.

Notes: This rule apparently rules out births in castes of high order prevalent those days. We do not know why high births are generalized as such.

39. The results concerning Karma Sthana (i.e. the 10th house) will be meagerly felt if Mars aspects the 10th house occupying Aries or Scorpio while Mercury is associated with malefics.

Notes: In this case, the 10th house can be one of Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Libra, Scorpio or Aquarius in which case birth should be in Leo, Virgo, Libra, Capricorn, Aquarius or Taurus in the same order. Thus for Lagnas in Leo, Virgo, Libra, Capricorn, Aquarius or Taurus, Mars in Scorpio/Aries cannot give good 10th house results if Mercury is with malefics. The involvement of Mercury in the Sage's rule should be carefully noted. Otherwise Mars is beneficial for Leo and Capricorn fully, and for Aquarius partly.

40. The native will head many people if Jupiter is in Leo, while Venus is in Virgo, Saturn is in Gemini and Mars is in the 4th identical with own house.

Notes: This principle applies exclusively to Leo and Capricorn only in which case Mars can be in 4th in Scorpio or in 4th in Aries. Thus, Venus in fall in the 2nd for Leo, and in fall in the 9th for Capricorn is made beneficial, in this yoga.

41-42. Should Saturn be in Virgo along with the Moon while Mars is in the sign Capricorn, Rahu in Aquarius and, Jupiter in Leo, the native will destroy the band of his enemies. One born with such planetary array will not be an ordinary man. He will advance his family to a good state and enjoy Rajayoga.

43. The native will indulge in notorious acts at the age of 20 (i.e. from his 20th year) if Venus is in Sagittarius, the Sun in Aquarius and Mars in Pisces simultaneously.

44. Should a malefic be in the 11th house, while the 5th is occupied by Venus and the Moon, the native's first issue will be a female and such female's mothers will be subjected to many troubles.

Notes: This combination in a male's horoscope will cause the birth of a female child and his wife will be put to troubles. If present in a lady's horoscope, the native herself will beget the results and obtain a female child first.

Venus and the Moon posited in the 5th will receive the powerful aspect of the malefic in the 11th house; and hence the first issue is a source of menace to the mother.

45. There will be destruction of relatives if the 4th is occupied by Rahu, the 2nd by Jupiter and the 6th/9th by Mercury.

46. Should the 9th be occupied by Jupiter, Mercury, Venus, and the Moon, the subject acquires success in all his undertakings and will be honoured by a king.

47. If both malefics and benefics occupy severally the 6th, 8th, 5th, 9th and the 12th, the native will be honoured by the king. But he will face many hardships in life.

48. If the 5th, 6th, 8th and 9th are occupied by respectively Mars, Rahu, Venus and the Sun, the native will protect his own people.

49. If the ascendant is occupied by Saturn and the Moon while Venus is posited in the 8th, the subject will be highly libidinous. Though he will be honoured by a king, he cannot enjoy any kind of happiness.

50. If the Moon is in Capricorn at birth along with debilitated Jupiter or with an inimical planet and aspected by Saturn, the native will be a source of evil to his own co-born.

Notes: The Moon should be in Capricorn with Jupiter and another planet to which the sign is inimical, for example, the Sun. Saturn aspecting such yoga is adverse to the co-born of the native.

51. Should Rahu be in Gemini while Mars is in Leo and Jupiter in Scorpio, the native will be equal to a king.

Notes: If the ascendant falls in Leo or Scorpio, in this case, it will be more advantageous. Note the aspect of Mars on Jupiter.

52. If at birth Saturn occupies Aquarius, Mars, Capricorn, and the Moon Aries while the 2nd house is occupied by the Sun, the subject will enjoy paternal wealth or his own wealth.

Notes: The 2nd house should be occupied by the Sun which indicates paternal money—the Sun, Karaka for father, in the house of money. Mars should be exalted; Saturn should be in Aquarius in own house while the Moon is in Aries—all these in any bhava. The Moon is thus aspected by Mars and Saturn simultaneously.

53. If Mercury and the Sun occupy the 10th while Rahu is in the 6th, the native will lord over many.

54. If the Sun is in the 10th in Leo, or Saturn in Libra identical with the 6th or the Moon and Mercury in the 9th in Gemini, a Rajayoga is formed.

Notes: The Sun in Leo in the 10th for Scorpio is productive of political power, high office etc. Saturn exalted in the 6th house for Taurus is indicative of freedom from diseases, enemies etc. and a good job to live. It further denotes paternal inheritance and a long-lived father. It promotes longevity of the native and bestows an elevated state of the co-born. Should Libra rise at birth while Mercury and the Moon are in the 9th house, Dharma-Karmadhipathi Yoga is produced as the lords of the 9th and the 10th join in one house. This is capable of giving a high official position to the native. Such a person can reach the pinnacles in business career also.

55. Jupiter in Lagna while Venus is in the 12th holding the other planets in between indicates a Rajayoga. This is to the advantage of the native's family to become strong (in all respects).

Notes: Jupiter should be in the ascendant and Venus should be in the 12th. The other planets, i.e. Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury and Saturn should be within the orbs of Venus and Jupiter, posited anywhere in 12th/Lagna. Longitudinally, these five should be ahead of Venus in the 12th and before the planet Jupiter. Then only this yoga will come to pass. For example, see the chart below. The shortest orb between the two planets in question should hold others in between them.

Moon 70°	Sat 5°
Sun 14°	Merc 4°
Mars 25°	Jup 12°
Ven 3°	Lagna 10°

In the above example, note the selection of planetary longitude which will depict the correct formation of the Yoga cited in the principle under study.

56. The native doubtlessly becomes a king if Jupiter is in the 8th and Venus is in the 3rd. All others should be between them.

57-58. One born in Libra Lagna with exalted Saturn, while Jupiter is in Taurus, the Moon in Gemini, Mars in Capricorn, Venus in Leo and Mercury in Virgo along with the Sun, will have a Raja Yoga, the results of which are: he will maintain justice, good deeds and auspiciousness in his life.

Notes: This is a very rare Raja Yoga and is put in a map thus, for easy grasp:

		Jup	Moon
Mars			Venus
		Lagna Saturn	Merc Sun

The Sage has fixed the positions of all the seven planets and the three—Mercury, Venus and the Sun—are longitudinally in a feasible guess. Such a native's birth is in a very affluent family, as Saturn is in exaltation in Lagna. Mars in the 4th in exaltation will confer superior education, longliving mother, abundant conveyances, landed property etc. Mercury is exalted in 12th in aspect to Jupiter, which is again a splendid Raja Yoga, denoting that the native will be obeyed even by higher-ups and will move in an aristocratic society.

59. The Yoga mentioned above will, however, cause

Balarishta in the 8th or the 12th year. The native will, however, later on prove inauspicious for the elder brother or sister.

Notes: The positions denoted in principles No 57 and 58 are capable of causing Balarishta, obviously because the 8th is occupied by Jupiter. He will, however, ensure good longevity after passing the Balarishta period of 12. In some cases, Jupiter in 8th has not given long life, while Saturn has given. (Saturn of course stands well for longevity). The planet Mars in 4th in peak may adversely tell upon the pre-born as he lends his powerful aspect to the 11th house.

60. If Libra happens to be the 2nd house or an angle and is occupied by a malefic, the native only faces sheer poverty. He will not prove a good augury for his own people.

Notes: This applies to Virgo, Libra, Capricorn, Aries and Cancer, if one of these rises at birth. Any malefic in Libra for such Lagnas will produce the said effects while Saturn will not. On the other hand, he will be helpful to the native as he will be exalted.

61. Should the Moon be in the 10th, while Venus is in the 7th and malefics in the 4th, the native's dynasty ends with him and there will be no further descent in his race.

Notes: This yoga apparently indicates that the native will not beget an issue and race will end with him.

62. The mother of the native will not survive if Saturn is in the 2nd, Rahu in the 3rd and Jupiter is in Pisces.

Notes: The position of Jupiter is fixed as Pisces, without reference to Lagna. In such a case, Saturn in the 2nd and Rahu in the 3rd will be adverse for the mother of the subject. This is, however, inapplicable to Sagittarius birth. Jupiter in the 4th then protects the mother while Saturn, though aspecting Jupiter in the 4th, will be pacified as he will be in Capricorn in his own house.

63. Should Mars be in the 7th while Venus is in the 8th followed by the Sun in the 9th, the native will be shortlived.

Notes: This principle is highly suggestive. The sage does not ignore the longitudinal restriction between the Sun and Venus (and also Mercury).

64-65. If Jupiter is in the ascendant, while the Yoga mentioned above (i.e. in principle 63) is absent, an auspicious yoga is caused. Such a native will live a long lease of life, will have many co-borns, will head many people (i.e. employ many and feed them), will be happy, will lead himself and his co-born to a prosperous level, be free from proud conduct, and be pleased in all aspects of life.

Notes: Jupiter in the ascendant is capable of bestowing goods in abundance as per the present principle, provided the 7th, 8th, and the 9th are not respectively occupied by Mars, Venus and the Sun. For, the native will be shortlived with these 3 planets posited in these respective houses.

66. If Saturn is in Cancer while Rahu is in Taurus, the native will be very liberal, will enjoy numerous yogas, i.e. will reach a very high state in life, will be famous, will be chief in his race and will marry many women. If, however, the said Saturn is lonely and aspects the 5th, there is only one marriage.

Notes: Saturn in Cancer while Rahu is in Taurus will produce the results as per the first part of the principle. If however, he is alone in Cancer, i.e. the other part of the yoga being not there (Rahu not being in Taurus) the native has one marriage while the 5th house receives Saturn's aspect from Cancer. Here, a pertinent query may be asked as to why the 5th house and Saturn come in the picture, while marriage is being considered.

The answer is simple to deep insight. Saturn in the 3rd or the 8th will give only one marriage—a much delayed marriage. This position in Cancer applies to Taurus when he can aspect the 5th by 3rd aspect, and to Sagittarius when he will be in the 8th aspecting the 5th by 10th aspect. Then, the other ascendant is Virgo for which Saturn can lend his 7th aspect on the 5th remaining in the 11th house. So to say, those born in Taurus/Virgo/Sagittarius, with Saturn in Cancer will marry once, but late.

67. The native will meet with his end if Jupiter and Rahu are together in the ascendant or the 4th. The end will be in the 13th year even if Lord Siva may try to save him. (That is, death in 13th year is certain).

Notes: Jupiter's association with Rahu in Lagna or the 4th is adverse for longevity. Such a person will not live long.

68. If Mars occupies the 8th while the Sun is in fall in the 5th or the 9th and Jupiter in accelerated motion in the 9th the native is blessed by Lakshmi, the Goddess of Wealth.

Notes: To make up deficit in elongation with reference to the Sun, a planet (except Moon) moves faster which is called Atichara or accelerated motion.

69-70. Should Venus be in Pisces along with Mercury while the ascendant, 2nd and 3rd are respectively tenanted by the Sun, Moon and Mars, a Raja Yoga is constituted. One born under the kind of planetary array will respect Gods and preceptors. He will achieve such fame in his own native country and abroad as well that cannot be achieved by others.

71. If the 12th is occupied by Jupiter while the 2nd house has Saturn, Sun, Mars and Mercury, the father of the native will pass away at the time of marriage of the native.

72. If Jupiter is in the 3rd while the planet Venus is in the 11th, the native will be famous among his relatives and will shine like a lamp among the men of his race.

73. If Venus in the ascendant is unpected by anyone, while the Moon is in the 2nd and Jupiter is in the 3rd, the native cannot enjoy any paternal earnings.

Notes: Venus in such state if aspected by some planet, the native may possibly enjoy such benefits.

74. Should Mars and Saturn be in Leo, while Venus is in Virgo and Rahu is in Gemini, the child will lose its mother (early).

Notes: The combination of Mars and Saturn, unless in the 11th is not quite auspicious. Should the Moon be strong in the said Yoga, the child will have its mother long living.

75. The above mentioned Yoga (as in 74) will cause poverty in childhood. If the Moon joins Mars, it will confer happiness in the later part.

Notes: The principle as per rule 74 above is adverse for mother and will cause poverty in the initial stage. If, however, the Moon is in Leo along with Mars, in addition to the planets stated in the respective positions, the child will lose its mother, suffer poverty in the beginning, but be happy in the later part of life.

76. If Lagna happens to be a malefic sign and is occupied by the said malefic Lagna Lord himself, while one among the 4th, 7th and the 10th being a malefic sign is occupied by its own malefic lord, the child will live only upto six.

Notes: There are two malefic planets and two malefic houses involved in this rule. Firstly, the Lagna should be occupied by Lagna Lord, who happens to be a natural malefic. Secondly, either the 4th, or the 7th or the 10th should be a Rasi owned by a malefic planet and occupied by its ruler. Then the longevity is only six.

77. A child born in the said Yoga (vide rule 76 above) will prove inauspicious to its mother. Additionally, there will be destruction of maternal relatives, if the 6th house is unpected by Jupiter.

Notes: One with the combination as per rule 76 above will firstly live upto six only and secondly will prove dangerous to the mother. The third effect is adversity to maternal uncle, if the 6th house is not aspected by Jupiter. If, however, Jupiter aspects the 6th, then there is relief to maternal relatives while the child and mother are still affected.

78. The child who has the Sun in Leo, a malefic in Virgo and Rahu in a malefic's house will only live for six years.

79. The longevity is only for 19 years if the Moon is in the 8th, malefics in angles and Rahu in the 10th at birth.

80. If a benefic planet is exalted in an angle, the native will acquire a large kingdom and will protect his family.

81. Death of father is imminent if a child is born with Rahu in the ascendant and the Sun in the 7th while Mars is between Lagna and the 7th.

Notes: In the combination, Rahu afflicts the Sun, who is pitrukaraka.

82. A child who has malefics posited in the 7th, 12th, 3rd and 8th will always have an ailing physique.

83. Should malefics be in the Lagna, 12th and 8th simultaneously, the child will be deprived of its mother instantly while its father will leave this world in its 4th or 10th year of age.

3. Sun-Mercury: Will not have conveyances, will be wickedly disposed, will have ill-reputed history, will commit sinful acts, will be forsaken by friends and relatives.

11. Moon-Saturn: Will earn money in bad ways, will know only bad things, be mean-minded, be attached to others' money, be won by unsocial elements.

12. Mars-Mercury: Can easily dupe others, will be an able speaker, interested in living in foreign countries and will have bad notions.

13. Mars-Jupiter: Will be hard-hearted, will have few sons, will entertain others, and will be interested in doing bad acts.

14. Mars-Venus: Will have phlegmatic imbalances, will undertake futile jobs, will cheat others, will be ungrateful, will have a valorous son and will not achieve success in any of his undertaking.

15. Mars-Saturn: Will be interested in committing sinful acts, will defy others, be interested in speaking harshly, and be fiercely disposed.

16. Mercury-Jupiter: Will be beautiful in appearance, be fortunate, splendid, rich and pleasing.

18. Mercury-Saturn: Will be expert in carrying out the orders of the king, will possess a bad wife, be indigent and will face obstructions from the public.

Notes: This position in Lagna is not congenial for those who deal with the public. Neither the native will have an amiable wife nor will he beget an issue.

18 a. Jupiter-Venus: Will be dear to king, be inclined to earn more wealth, will have more knowledge in policies, be very rich and be an exponent of Sastras to a great proportion.

EFFECTS OF 3 PLANETS IN LAGNA

(From Rule 21 to 54)

21. Sun-Moon-Mars: Will be liked by his elders, be defective limbed, be a liar and be cruel, blameworthy and foolish.

Notes: Mars in the ascendant will generally cause some defect in the limb after birth.

Notes: Balabhadra states that the native will be very famous, highly placed, be chief among men and will hold very high position. He will be acceptable to all policies.

Such natives, I feel, are capable of reaching high political status and will move upwards unobstructedly. This is a good position for Aries, Cancer, Leo, Scorpio, Sagittarius and Pisces for which Lagnas, these three are all-auspicious. The Moon is little inauspicious, however, for Dhanus.

24. Sun-Moon-Venus: Will have auspicious events, be famous, prestigious, wealthy, chief among men and be justly disposed.

Notes: In Hora Ratna शुभार्थयुक्तम् appears, meaning that the native will have wealth earned through auspicious means.

This position bestows an early marriage and an amiable wife.

25. Sun-Moon-Saturn: Will have a fearful body (i.e. be fierce in appearance), be short-lived, sick, sinful, capable of promoting quarrels, and will be forsaken by relatives.

Notes: The combination of Sun-Saturn in Lagna is not congenial for longevity, while the position is somewhat better for Sagittarius and Pisces. This is very adverse for Aries where Saturn will be in fall and for Libra where the Sun will be in fall. The Moon getting afflicted makes the situation all the more worse for the said lagnas and in a high proportion for Scorpio, where the Moon herself is debilitated.

26. Sun-Mars-Mercury: Will be very industrious, will always, be troubled, be inimically disposed to others, be ungrateful and subjected to phlegmatic and windy diseases.

Notes: This Yoga in Lagna is capable of causing digestive deficiency, rheumatic pains etc.

27. Sun-Mars-Jupiter: Will always be proud, be highly egoistic, will possess a fleet of horses and will be keen in imparting vices to others.

Notes: Jupiter in the company of the Sun and Mars is capable of converting the native into a horse-race addict. This position is highly suggestive of lever disorders. If Rahu joins these in Lagna, it may be seven lever cancer.

28. Sun-Mars-Venus: Will be chief, justly disposed, will have good qualities, and be dear to his relatives.

Notes: Hora Ratna adds that the native will win over his enemies.

Venus, Mars and the Sun in Lagna will make one addicted to whores. The subject will suffer from venereal diseases like Syphilis. He will not have a virtuous or long-living wife.

29. Sun-Mars-Saturn: Will acquire a wife to promote monetary state, be short-lived, be subjected to many diseases, untruthful and foolish.

30. Sun-Mercury-Jupiter: Will be skilful, will advance through his undertakings, will befriend many and be an expert in war.

40. Moon-Mercury-Venus: Will be a king, will possess attractive physique, be very valorous and be always happy.

41. Moon-Mercury-Venus: Will be very efficacious, attached to the virtuous, will have no knowledge of arts (practical or fine, which are 74 in number, such as music, dance etc), and will be versed in justice.

Notes: Hora Ratna in addition to the above states that the subject will have superior blood ( विशिष्ट रक्त ) meaning that the blood will be free from defects.

42. Moon-Jupiter-Venus: Will marry a highly placed lady, will have rich food to eat, be very happy and will donate liberally.

43. Moon-Jupiter-Saturn: Will not be efficacious (here Hora Ratna states that the native will have appealing physique), be firm, will be eloquent, inimically disposed to the public, will have knowledge of poison (i.e. will deal with poison), and will have interest in bad deeds.

47. Mars-Mercury-Saturn: Will be unjust, regardless of law, will have bad wife, have few sons, and will kill animals.

48. Mars-Jupiter-Venus: Will be good-natured, will be endowed with virtues, wealth and children and will be respectful towards Brahmins and Gods.

50. Mars-Venus-Saturn: Will have a surprising body(?), be fierce, will not have any code of conduct, be inimical to his own men, and be confused.

Notes: C. G. Rajan says that the native will be calculative (in his dealings) while Bala Bhadra denotes a mathematician with this yoga. Balabhadra adds that the native will be subject to many vices.

339. Mars-Jupiter: Will be successful, poor, akin to cupid, interested in sins, forsaken by his relatives and will have penchant for arts.

348. Sun-Moon-Mercury: Will be devoid of good qualities, "will have hands devoid of much splendour", will be ungrateful, and will be happy with the money earned through very hard labour.

Notes: गुरुप्रभाहीनकरं " is Balabhadra's reading, which 354. Sun-Mars-Venus: Will be primarily happy, will have a large army, be interested in Sastras and Puranas, be ill-disposed कष्टस्वभावम् and be timid.

355. Sun-Mars-Saturn: Will be subjected to various worries, be devoid of shame, be indolent (be dull-witted as per Balabhadra), be short-lived and just.

356. Sun-Mercury-Jupiter: Will be honoured, grieved, attached to bad people, be a miser, will be very much happy ( हर्षाधिकं ) and be troubled by enemies ( अरादित्तं ).

Notes: The last two phrases find corrupt translation in Rajan's text. However, correct meaning is as above. The native will be sometimes happy and sometimes not.

357. Sun-Moon-Venus: Will be interested in sins, bad in disposition, will be troubled due to excessive phlegm, be shameless, will have bad nails and be ungrateful.

358. Sun-Mercury-Saturn: Will be devoid of good history, will be troubled by friendship with bad elements and be wicked.

365. Moon-Mars-Saturn: Will be free from committing sinful acts, be interested in astic knowledge, be tactful, be a powerful speaker and will earn much.

366. Moon-Mercury-Jupiter: Will be a king, will be free from diseases, will have many kinds of horses, be given to anger, will be very efficacious and will conquer his enemies.

367. Moon-Mercury-Venus: Will be endowed with great lordship, will be famous because of his great wife, be kind and be interested in good people.

368. Moon-Mercury-Saturn: Will be endowed with great lordship, will be a great personage, be chief in his lineage, and will be brought up affectionately by his parents.

Notes: भूरिप्रभुसमेत is repeated in Rules 367 and 368 and hence both these yogas give great lordship.

369. Moon-Jupiter-Venus: Not available as per C. G. Rajan and Balabhadra's text. However, Rajan adds that the native with this yoga in general will have wisdom, learning, skilful sons and expertise in arts.

397. Sun-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will always be an employer, will be served by many attendants, will do liberal acts and be fearless in disposition.

Notes: This combination is apparently to run large establishments with a wide work-force.

398. Moon-Mars-Mercury-Saturn: Will be devoted to others (devoted to Fire, according to Balabhadra), will have numerous workmen, be widely famous, very wealthy and be dear to people.

399. Moon-Mars-Mercury-Venus: Will be timid in nature, truthful, kind respectful to Brahmins, and will like virtues.

400. Moon-Mars-Jupiter-Venus: Will be very surprisingly bold, will be endowed with wealth of passion and be attached to good men.

Notes: Balabhadra's text does not say that the native will help Brahmins. But it has a redundant statement in that it states "हितं जनानाम् परोपकारप्रवर्णं" broadly meaning one and the same thing.

405. Moon-Mercury-Venus-Saturn: Will have many sons, will be liked by women, be free from blemish, will be happy with wisdom and wealth, and be a lord.

406. Moon-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will be interested in earning money through merchandising (i.e. business in general), be famous and be always endowed with mental vigour.

Notes: Balabhadra's text does not mention of any mental vigour. It reads ओजः सहितं सदैव meaning that the native will have always bodily vigour or splendour.

407. Mars-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus: Will be endowed with extremely merciful tendency, be devoid of sex feelings, will speak clearly (eloquently), will be justly disposed and respectful or honourable.

408. Mars-Mercury-Jupiter-Saturn: Will have respect for his preceptors, will not spend (unnecessarily), will be very wealthy, will be very respectable and be a lord.

409. Mars-Mercury-Venus-Saturn: Will be an astrologer, will be very much interested in gathering Sastraic knowledge, be very wise and will have plenty of food of his liking.

Notes: Balabhadra denotes in his text विधिज्ञमाद्यम् . which can broadly mean an astrologer par excellence. This is strengthened as the combination occurs in the 4th house, relating to learning. विधि also means a religious or sacred commandment and it can be more aptly interpreted that the native will be an expert in such field. Hence, he will be a ritualist. Thus, specific astrological excellence cannot be extracted from the combination based on the sloka. Such effect becoming possible is a different matter, and cannot be disputed.

410. Mars-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will have liking to learn about the Supreme Spirit, be devoid of sins, will speak truth, and will be known in royal circle.

411. Mercury-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will play musical instruments, will be very kind and will be bold in rendering help to others.

414. Sun-Moon-Mars-Mercury-Saturn: Will be highly greedy, will be patriotic, will lack courtesy (or harmony, cleverness etc., as the word दक्षिण्य means), and will always be devoid of wealth.

Notes: According to Balabhadra's text, there is some difference. It on the whole reads that the native will have extreme greed, will be interested in his own physique and will be discourteous.

415. Sun-Moon-Mars-Jupiter-Venus: Will be interested in sword-fight, will reveal pride in face, be shameless and will lack masculine vigour.

Note: Balabhadra's text speaks only valour in general and not masculine vigour.

high splendour and sastric wisdom, will be honoured, be patient and will respect Gods and preceptors.

428. Moon-Mars-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will be very kind, be interested in sastras, be virtuous and wear Lapis Lazuli (i.e. cat's eye) etc.<sup>1</sup>

434. Sun-Mars-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will not be interested in tales, will be interested in very bad people, will be impatient, and be averse to Vedas (instead of "being given up by Vedas", as found in the account given by C. G. Rajan).

1. Balabhadra's text reads वैदूर्यं मुक्तामणिदेहं भाजम् meaning that the native will wear cat's eye, pearl and ruby. In fine, the native will wear such precious stones.

Notes: कथाविहीनं can be interpreted as "not interested in conversation" rather than "not interested in tales."

435. Moon-Mars-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will depend on many, will be interested in visiting shrines, be industrious, will possess good qualities, be truthful and kind.

Notes: That the native "will depend on many" is out of question, as per the words of Balabhadra बहुश्रुत . The word श्रुत means famous, celebrated etc, and hence it should be deduced that the person will be very famous.

श्रुत has further meanings viz named, ascertained, heard etc. A popular meaning is of course Veda ( वेद ).

EFFECTS OF 7 PLANETS IN FOURTH BHAVA (Sun to Saturn)

Fifth Bhava

EFFECTS OF 2 PLANETS IN FIFTH BHAVA (From Rule 436 to 455)

436. Sun-Moon: Will not be egoistic, will be hump-backed, be dejected, will have evil sons, will always be subjected to much miseries and will be of bad disposition.

Notes: There is no mention of "not being egoistic" in Balabhadra's text. It reads विगताभिमानम् which means that the native will not have self-respect. अभिमान also means belief, concept, affection etc, and accordingly various suitable interpretations can be obtained.

437. Sun-Mars: Will have many sons and plurality of wives, will be accessible to enemies, be cruel, fearful and will always be interested in sins.

438. Sun-Mercury: Will be interested in committing much sinful acts, will have all kinds of afflictions, be cruel, be forsaken by his wife and will be prone to evils.

Notes: Thus, the yoga of Mercury and the Sun in the 4th is not congenial for a female to have a continued married life and she may face a "divorce" rather according to the meaning of the combination given above.

439. Sun-Jupiter: Will be devoid of knowledge of Vedas ( श्रुतिवाक्यहीनं ), will eat others' food, be attached to others' wives, be very hard in disposition and be devoid of good qualities.

Notes: श्रुतिवाक्य literally means Vedic text. For our purpose, it means that one with the Sun and Jupiter in 5th will be devoid of Vedic learning, according to the text of the sloka.

440. Sun-Venus: Will be bereft of good qualities and vigour, will be miserable, conquered by enemies, will be troubled by weakness, be disinterested in Sastras and will be of bad mentality.

441. Sun-Saturn: Will sell articles, be grateful, interested in being virtuous, will be happy with wife and sons ( पुत्रकलत्रसौख्यम् ) and will be ever plentiful.

Notes: धातुक्रिया is additionally found in Hora Ratna, which indicates that the native will have knowledge of metallurgy or mineralogy. Further, mark that according to the rule, the Sun and Saturn, bitter enemies in conjunction in the 5th, an important house, are praised by Sage Garga. This is highly suggestive a principle and should be put to proper practical analysis.

442. Moon-Mars: Will be very happy, be learned, and will believe in God and confide in preceptors.

Notes: Additional information found in Hora Ratna in this respect is that the native will be intent on donating, be virtuous and be desirous of becoming famous ( श्रुतलालसञ्च ), or interested in Vedic learning.

443. Moon-Mercury: Will be honoured, be youthful in appearance ( तारुण्यरूपम् ), will beget many sons, and will respect Gods and preceptors.

444. Moon-Jupiter: Will be wounded, be favourable to Sastras, be happy by nature, be a lord and will utter prayers in an undertone (जय).

Notes: क्षतशास्त्रपक्ष of Balabhadra should be divided as क्षत + wounded and शास्त्रपक्ष = favourable to Sastras to make proper sense. For one who has the Moon and Jupiter in the 5th will always, in my belief, favour Sastras. सदाजयं is the reading of Balabhadra's text (meaning 'always successful') as against the word जयं of Rajan's interpretation.

445. Moon-Venus: Will be endowed with treasures and wisdom, will always be happy, will have more daughters, and be dear to his wife.

445a. Moon-Saturn: Will be devoid of issue and happiness, be of worldly (material) disposition, be of bad mind, and will be rejected as per Sastraic terms.

446. Mars-Mercury: Will be modest, will incur losses due to illusion regarding agriculture, be cruel, be interested in living in foreign countries, and will adopt relatives and sons.

447. Mars-Jupiter: Not available.

448. Mars-Venus: Will earn more enemies, be always insulted by mean people, be illusioned and will disrespect Brahmins.

449. Mars-Saturn: Will have wounded limbs, be won over by ladies, be wicked, ungrateful, impatient and be not wealthy.

450. Mercury-Jupiter: Will have many sons, be desirous, of success, be dear to women (or wife), be pleasing in appearance, be dutiful and be not greedy.

451. Mercury-Venus: Will have auspicious speech (i.e. will be an eloquent speaker), be interested in surprising acts, be respectful to Brahmins, be skilful, and be resolute.

452. Mercury-Saturn: Will have a defective limb, be not happy, be cruel and will be naturally inauspicious.

Notes: If these two planets are together in the 5th, the native's wife will be a Kaka Vandhya, i.e. she will become barren after delivering one child; see English translation of Brihat Sastra, Ch. 16, Sloka 6.

453. Jupiter-Venus: Will be very fortunate, be chief among his men, will have many sons, be wealthy and happy.

454. Jupiter-Saturn: Will be very fortunate, be not good, be friendly to bad people, be interested in intoxicant drinks, will wear rags, be not praiseworthy, and will indulge in unholy acts.

455. Venus-Saturn: Will have daughters, will be addicted to females, will be interested in sinful tales, be ungrateful, be ugly and be not praiseworthy.

EFECTS OF 3 PLANETS IN FIFTH BHAVA

479. Moon-Jupiter-Saturn: Will be wise and famous, will be an expert poet, be devoid of enemies, be very happy, be of good disposition and will have beautiful face.

480. Moon-Venus-Saturn: Will have good qualities and good nature, will be an astrologer, will maintain his physique beautifully, will be lustful ( मन्दान्वित ) and interested in listening to religious accounts.

Notes: The text of Balabhadra reads: रंगविवर्जितांग which means that the body of the native will not have (good) hue whereas C. G. Rajan has a different account, stating that the native will maintain his physique beautifully.

481. Mars-Mercury-Jupiter: Will hold the "flag of charity" aloft (i.e. will be highly charitable and will say "no" to none as Karna of Maha Bharata), will be truthful and will maintain only truth, will be very intelligent, be bashful, enthusiastic, and courageous.

EFFECTS OF 4 PLANETS IN FIFTH BHAVA

(From Rule 491 to 524)

491. Sun-Moon-Mars-Mercury: Will blame the dearest, will be against his elders, will be unprincipled, be shameless and be of bad disposition.

492. Sun-Moon-Mars-Jupiter: Will be bereft of sons, be immodest, indigent and be devoid of kindness and virtues.

493. Sun-Moon-Mars-Venus: Will have long penis, itchy thighs, be poor and interested in others' wives.

494. Sun-Moon-Mars-Saturn: Will be ungrateful, be happy, will enjoy authority, will have mean profession, and be devoid of relatives.

Notes: हर्षाधिकारेण is the reading in Hora Ratna, which indicates that the native will have happiness ( हर्ष ) and authority अधिकार. The latter can be treated independently without contradicting "mean profession" (दीनवृत्ति, for one can enjoy authority although he takes to menial earnings. निपीडितांग is an addition in Hora Ratna's text which denotes that the native will have afflicted physique.

1. "will attain heavens" is the meaning of Balabhadra's text.

495. Sun-Moon-Mercury-Venus: Will be very happy, will be subjected to sexual pressure, and belongs to noble lineage, but will be unjust.

496. Sun-Moon-Mercury-Venus: Will be a tale-bearer, will give up his religion and will hate the virtuous.

497. Sun-Moon-Mercury-Saturn: Will be unkind; unintelligible, be not proud, will possess ornaments, and be in the company of sinners.

498. Sun-Moon-Jupiter-Venus: Will be interested in chariots (i.e. conveyances), be immodest, and will like bathing with application of scents etc., (i.e. the native will enjoy rich bathing conveniences like modern appliances, costly soaps, oils, cream etc.).

499. Sun-Moon-Jupiter-Saturn: Will be happy, will make futile efforts, be devoid of friends and sons, be dear and will perform wicked acts.

500. Sun-Mars-Mercury-Jupiter: Will not be splendidous, will perform condemnable acts, will have very mean profession, and be highly ill-tempered.

Notes: The native can be meaningfully understood to be an unsocial elements indulging in unlawful activities.

501. Sun-Mars-Mercury-Venus: Will give up his duties, be unjust, dull, indolent, and will like ugly people.

502. Sun-Mars-Mercury-Saturn: Will be bereft of strength, be a thief, be interested in sexual stories, will serve others and be devoid of courage.

503. Sun-Mars-Jupiter-Venus: Will be miserable on account of wounds, be not virtuous, and will always perform against Sastras.

504. Sun-Mars-Jupiter-Saturn: Will have revolutionary thinking, will be troubled by serious diseases, will not have intelligence, be not virtuous and be without ears.

Notes: There is some difference here when compared to Balabhadra, where it reads कृतक स्वभावम् meaning "false nature" or "pretentious" as against "lack of intelligence" as above. Another clarification is with respect to "having no ears". Balabhadra's text reads: श्रुति विवर्जितं which denotes lack of hearing. श्रुति of course means ears. The native, it should be interpreted, will have the ears physically but will be short of hearing or will lack hearing. This is rather a suitable meaning of the combination, denoting deafness, as against a theoretical meaning of having no ears. However, in some practical cases, one's ear (outer ear) may have to be removed surgically and in such situation, this can be applied.

श्रुति also means Vedic or holy learning. And such a native may not be initiated into such learning with this combination.

505. Sun-Mars-Venus-Saturn: Will have defective arm, will not be interested in materials donated for performance of shanti etc. and be subjected to vices.

Notes: चतुष्पादाच्छादन भाजनाथैर्विवर्जितम् is Balabhadra's reading. This should be interpreted that the native will be devoid of quadrupeds ( चतुष्पाद ), clothes ( आच्छादन ), vessels ( भाजन ) and wealth ( अर्थ ) ( भाजन has other meanings like repository, a fit person etc, out of our context). In fine, the native will not be endowed with quadrupeds like cows etc, will not have quality robes, will not have good vessels (ie. to cook food) and will be devoid of wealth.

506. Sun-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus: Will be infamous, be not efficacious, be in the company of sinners, and be hasty.

507. Sun-Mercury-Jupiter-Saturn: Will perform blameworthy acts, will be interested in bad females and in serving bad people, be not famous, be unkind, and will hate Brahmins.

508. Sun-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will be devoid of interest in meritorious acts, will not be intelligent, be interested in studying unworthy books and be impartial.

509. Sun-Mercury-Venus-Saturn: Will be insulted by others, will wear rags, will be impure, will have untimely food and will be troubled by poverty at all times.

510. Moon-Mars-Jupiter-Mercury: Will be wise, learned, interested in Vedas etc., will conquer his enemies, and will be of friendly disposition.

512. Moon-Mars-Mercury-Saturn: Will be immodest, will be interested in his own religion, will be courageous, charitable and highly respectable.

513. Moon-Mars-Jupiter-Venus: Will have wounds (itches etc.), will protect Brahmins, be of good qualities, and be famous for self respect.

514. Moon-Mars-Jupiter-Venus: Will like cold things, will know the meaning of various sastras, will be proud, be a poet and be liked by people.

Notes: शीतलादयं is the reading in Balabhadra's text as against "will like cold things" of C. G. Rajan. The Sanskrit text, however, means that the native will be rich with pearls for शीतल means pearls. Another possible interpretation is that the native will be predominantly of unanimated temperament. Yet another meaning is the native will not be responsive to sex. For शीतल has all these meanings.

If Mars applies his influence to Venus first, then the native's mind (5th house) will have violent response to sex and thus he cannot be irresponsible to sex. If Jupiter applies first, being in the closest orb, to Venus, then the native's sexual temperament is softened and refined. Should this combination occur in a house of Saturn or

1. "Conscientious" as per Bala Bhadra.

Mercury, it leaves a chance of having less or lack of response to sex. Should the Moon have a predominant hand in the combination and be well placed with effective influences from Venus and Jupiter, the native can possess rich pearls, for the Moon rules pearls among Nava Ratnas.

515. Moon-Mars-Venus-Saturn: Will help people, will befriend many, will have various ornaments, be patient, and will be connected with religious activities.

Notes: समृद्ध is an addition in Balabhadra's text which denotes that the native will be plentiful i.e. rich in all respects. धर्मविद्यानदर्श is the reading in his text (as against Rajan's mention of 'connected with religious actives' which is of course broadly correct). The idea of Balabhadra is that the native will be expert in legal precepts or injunctions.

516. Moon-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus: Will be endowed with sons and wealth, will be rich with application of sandal, saffron etc., and robes and ornaments, will have abundant riches and will enjoy happiness through children.

517. Moon-Mercury-Jupiter-Saturn: Will uphold truth, be modest, will be very charitable and be honoured by the learned.

518. Moon-Mercury-Venus-Saturn: Will be broad minded (विशालभाजम्), will conquer his Five Senses, will like cleanliness, be good-looking, be endowed with fortune and courage and be not greedy ( अलोलुप ).

519. Moon-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will be worshipped by kings, will be interested in Sastras and religion, and be endowed with sons and wealth.

520. Mars-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus: Will have the knowledge of the Supreme Spirit, will have satisfied mind, and be dear to king.

521. Mars-Mercury-Jupiter-Saturn: Will have beautiful body, be free from desires, will have (good) principles, be chief in his lineage, be intelligent and pure.

Notes: The influence lent by Saturn and Jupiter to the other two, if strong, can free the native from (material) desires and thus bestow tranquility of mind.

522. Mars-Mercury-Venus-Saturn: Will be broad-minded ( विशालभाजम् ), will observe virtues, be expert in father's assignments, be patient, and will like all people.

523. Mars-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will be good in arts, will know the meanings of Vedas, will have quadrupeds, be very pure and famous.

524. Mercury-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Not available in Rajan's text. He quotes in general context that these four in any house will give abundant wealth, learning and virtues.

Notes: However, Balabhadra's text has a different account. It gives the effects of Mercury-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn joining in the 5th as given by us, vide rule 523 for Mars-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn and gives a different concept for Mars-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn joining in 5th thus: will have gains, will like good people and will be respectful to Gods, Vedas and Brahmins, (as against what we have given under rule 523).

Notes: Hora Ratna states that the native will be happy, skilful in arts, very learned and be generally an expert.

559. Sun-Saturn: Will be free from sickness and sins, will be very wise, be endowed with weapons and wealth, will have servants and will be of good nature.

Notes: The above indicates, that these two planets in the 6th though mutually inimical, can prove a help to the native. If one of them is exalted, it is still good. Even one of them being in own house can give good results. For example, for Leo ascendant, the Sun and Saturn in Capricorn in the 6th will prove quite auspicious. Conversely, if one of them be in fall, the situation will change.

560. Moon-Mars: Will be troubled by diseases, will lose his intellect, be splendourous, be unfortunate, and will face killing (be killed) and be imprisoned.

Notes: वध apart from meaning killing, slaughtering etc, also means paralysis. These two planets together in the 6th are capable of causing paralytic attack. वधबन्ध भाजम् can mean, as well, that the native will be killed or imprisoned. Thus, this combination can cause punishments like imprisonment, hanging etc.

561. Moon-Mercury: Will be forsaken by the people of his race and by his relatives, will not be rich, will have a bad wife, be timid and cunning.

562. Moon-Jupiter: Will be devoid of intelligence and long life, will develop defects in limbs due to sickness, and be devoid of desires and good qualities.

576. Sun-Moon-Mercury: Will be sinful, given to anger, will have disloyal servants, be devoid of wealth and grains, will fear and be truthness.

577. Sun-Moon-Jupiter: Will experience various miseries, will be forsaken by children, wife and servants, will have mean profession and have no wealth.

578. Sun-Moon-Venus: Will be mean, strong, egoistic, of ugly mentality, devoid of affection.

579. Sun-Moon-Saturn: Will be sinful, be not attached to people, will have hard legs, be fearful and hasty

Notes: See notes under Rule 580. (for प्रियलोकविहीनं ).

580. Sun-Mars-Mercury: Be sinful, not attached to people, will have various kinds of wealth, will conquer his enemies, will have many friends and be devoid of war (quarrel) etc.

Notes: प्रियलोकविहीनम् is the reading in Balabhadra's text which denotes that the native will be bereft of beloved people, i.e. his people will not be affectionate to him instead of that he will not be attached to (his) people. Same is the case with Rule 579 also.

581. Sun-Mars-Jupiter: Will be brave, be interested in sastras, will conquer his five senses.

588. Sun-Jupiter-Saturn: Will be clever in performance, will be interested in singing, will have several enjoyments, and be interested in digging tanks and wells.

Notes: विदग्ध apart from meaning clever also means crafty or cunning. If Saturn is predominantly influential in the yoga, the native will be cunning in his acts while he will be clever in his acts with a stronger Jupiter.

भोग also means carnal pleasures, apart from meaning enjoyments in general. The word still can severally be interpreted as wealth, income, profit, wages earned as a prostitute, etc. Thus, the word has to be cautiously interpreted. A woman with these 3 planets in the 6th, for example for Mesha, where Saturn is the lord of the 11th and Jupiter of the 12th, can give her earnings out of her flesh. In this case the Sun is the lord of the 5th, (chastity) which lends a helping hand to the adversity. If Saturn rules the 7th and be in the 6th, with the other two, the native may derive carnal pleasures only for the sake of pleasure. Much wealth or income can be expected if one of these be owning the 2nd or 11th and be in the 6th with powerful Dhana yogas. These three can give an efficacious monetary lift to the native, if one of them is exalted, i.e. Lagna being in Taurus (6th house will hold exalted Saturn), or Aquarius (6th house holding exalted Jupiter) or last in the order being in Scorpio (6th house holding exalted Sun and simultaneously fallen Saturn).

Digging of tanks etc., are meant for public welfare and is considered an act of charity. When these 3 are so placed in the 6th while the Moon is in a watery sign, the subject will be inclined more to undertake such public welfare measures.

589. Sun-Venus-Saturn: Will be dear to good people, will be an eloquent speaker, be interested in sastras, be skilful, be highly learned, and will have knowledge of sastras.

590. Moon-Mars-Mercury: Will experience various measures of miseries, be untruthful, be intelligent, will eat other's food, and be able to guess about others' mind.

591. Moon-Mars-Jupiter: Will be devoid of truth and wealth, will be very much wounded because of enmity, will lose courage and will be devoid of lordship. (प्रभुता indicates lordship, authority, mastery, ascendancy etc., indicating that the native will not rise in life but remain in lower rungs.)

592. Moon-Mars-Venus: Will be poor, be bereft of relatives, will have the nature to remain pleased, be dear to his workmen, and be troubled by the three temperaments, i.e. wind, phlegm and bile.

593. Moon-Mars-Saturn: Will experience loss of children, will go for enmity, will have injured body, will have desires, be defeated and listless towards Sastras.

594. Moon-Mercury-Jupiter: Will be short-lived, distressed, devoid of sastric learning, interested in blaming others, and be an atheist.

599. Moon-Venus-Saturn: Will be very miserable, be devoid of wisdom, learning and modesty, and be troubled.

The sun in the 7th, for that matter with any planet, except when well aspected, dignified etc., or when Venus or the 7th lord is powerful, is capable of hurting this sphere. The woman will be sickly, if the Sun is alone; if with the Moon it may affect her mental plane or may cause her bloody diseases; if with Mars or Saturn, she may be of questionable character; if with Rahu, there may be separation, divorce etc; if with Venus, the native himself may be a debaucher and if with Jupiter, the partner may prove a spendthrift beyond income and may be barren; on the whole, the Sun with a malefic in the 7th will cause early death of the spouse while in the company of a benefic

Notes: सदा प्रमेहं is denoted in Hora Ratna's text which indicates that the native will always suffer from urinary diseases ie gleet, diabetes etc, with these four planets in 8th. We do not know the basis of Rajan's account of the person being ever sensuous. Even if his text had read प्रमेहं, it only means "bewildered; infatuated, stupidified etc."

EFFECTS OF 5 PLANETS IN EIGHTH BHAVA

Notes: For वधबन्धनादयम् see Rule No 560.

888. Moon-Mars-Mercury-Venus-Saturn: Will sometimes contemplate the Supreme Spirit, yet sometimes be detached (from that path), will sometimes grow twisted (matted) hair, yet sometimes will remain tonsured, and will have various (such) guises and will perform very cruel acts.

Notes: The above translation is of Balabhadra's quotation which reads thus: योगं वियोगं जटिलं च मुंडितं नात-कुवेषं ह्यति क्रूर कार्यम्।

This goes to convey that the native will have peculiar guises and will not constantly remain attached to the path of divine knowledge.

889. Moon-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will have many quadrupeds, be affluent, be highly scholarly, and be skilful in the sciences of Sex and Yoga.

Notes: The word योग has more than 30 meanings

893. Sun-Moon-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will be endowed with abundant happiness, various kinds of wealth, and will like playing with horses ( अश्वविलास ).

894. Moon-Mars-Mercury-Jupiter-Venus-Saturn: Will be very rich, devoted to Brahmins and endowed with relatives.

EFFECTS OF 7 PLANETS IN EIGHTH BHAVA

927. Sun-Mercury-Venus: Will talk much, be truthful, interested in virtues, grateful, will conquer his Five Senses and be free from sinful desires.

Notes: हीनवाक्यं is the reading in Hora Ratna's quotation as against "talking much" mentioned by Rajan. The version of Balabhadra means that the native will be devoid of or deprived of speech. The 9th being the 8th from the 2nd, the house of speech, these planets may deprive one of speech or cause stammering etc. This will be more true if the Sun combusts the other two or one of the three being the ruling planet for the 2nd house.

928. Sun-Mercury-Saturn: Will be an agriculturist, be at all times charitably disposed, will possess good splendour, be strong, broad-eyed and justly disposed.

Notes: One will be highly learned in the branch of justice (or politics) as Balabhadra denotes नयकोविद in his quotation.

935. Moon-Mars-Saturn: Will like good people, be very bashful, devoid of sexual feelings, will possess principally good qualities, and will be destroyed by the king.

Notes: The last mentioned effect is differently dealt with in Hora Ratna, for it says that the subject will be punished by the king, see नृपशासित in which context शासित means punished, though variedly it denotes "ruled". Such native may receive punishment from king or government.

936. Moon-Mercury-Jupiter: Will be skilful, will like famous people (विशिष्टरक्त), be merciful, will visit shrines, and will be alert in his duty.

Notes: सुतार्थसमेत is added in Balabhadra's version which means that the native will have sons and wealth.

C. G. Rajan in his translation states that the native will be alert in his duty whereas विधिना समेत is better rendered as "will be endowed with sacred commandment or religious act". Our version denotes that the native will be identified accordingly.

937. Moon-Mercury-Venus: Will be good-looking, fierce, widely famous, and attached to Brahmins at all times.

938. Moon-Mercury-Saturn: will be dear to virtuous, will conquer enemies, be highly virtuous, and be famous.

943. Mars-Mercury-Saturn: Will be merciful, interested in visiting shrines, will be endowed with abundant food and drinks (पान is added in Hora Ratna), will join good people and be always intelligent.

944. Mars-Jupiter-Venus: Will be very efficacious, egoistic, interested in Sastras and be charitable.

945. Mars-Jupiter-Saturn: Will be free from sickness, be very wealthy, virtuous, kind and fearless.

946. Mars-Venus-Saturn: Will have abundant money, elephants and horses, will conquer his Five Senses, and be valorous.

947. Mercury-Jupiter-Venus: Will be a king, be honoured by enemies, and will have elephants, horses and conveyances (i.e. will enjoy vast conveyances).

Note: Hora Ratna, in place of the native becoming a king as above, reads पराधिनाथ meaning that the native will be the head of others.

प्रणतारिषं is better rendered as "will have submissive enemies" instead of "will be respected by enemies"

948. Mercury-Jupiter-Saturn: Will spend on bad missions, be sickly, ungrateful, forsaken by (his) people and will like to be valorous.
