D.: Your blog can wait.

L.: No, I'm not writing my blog right now.

D.: Oh, that's a change. You write it every day.

L.: Yes, I do. But I'm chatting to my friend Marissa online.

D.: Ok, you've got five minutes.

L.: Thanks, dad.

2 D.: You look different, Lucy. Why are you wearing a dress? We're only going to the cinema. You usually just wear jeans and a T-shirt.

L.: Well, all my T-shirts and jeans are dirty. I have nothing else to wear.

3 A.: Hi, Lucy. Do you want to hang out? Or maybe watch a DVD?

L.: Sorry, Ann. I'm having dinner at the Blue dot with my mom and dad.

A.: On a Monday? You never go out on a Monday.

L.: It's dad's birthday today.

A.: Ah, say "happy birthday" from me.

1.27 Unit 1, 1.4, Exercise 3

1 Mum: Max! Can you help me with the housework?

Max: No problem, Mum.

Mum: Can you load the dishwasher, please?

Max: Yes, of course!

2 Max: Do you need any help with the cooking?

Mum: Yes, please. Can you wash the tomatoes?

3 Dad: Max, can you download this song for me?

Max: I'm sorry, Dad, I can't. I'm cooking right now!

1.30 Unit 1, 1.6, Exercises 2,3

I.: Hello and welcome to YouTalk. It's Sunday morning, the time is 11 am and we're talking about spending time together as a family. Our first caller is Andy and he is 14. Hi, Andy. You're calling from Hackney, right?

A.: Yes, but I'm not... guys!

I.: There are some people with you. Who are they?

A.: My family! Mum, dad, two sisters and a brother.

All: Hello!

I.: Andy, it sounds like you are spending time together.

A.: Yes, we always spend Sundays together as a family. Right now we're driving to the beach. Well, dad is driving.

S.: Mum, I'm hungry!

M.: Shh. Here, have a cheese sandwich.

I.: Who's that?

A.: That's my little sister, Sue.

I.: What about weekdays, Andy? Do you spend time together on weekdays too?

A.: Weekdays are difficult. We're all busy. Mum and dad go to work, they have a pet shop. And my brother, Vick, works in a café. My sisters and I go to school. We have afterschool activities, we do our chores. We usually only meet for dinner as a family. Oh, I help the girls with their homework. Does that count?

I.: How old are your sisters?

A.: Lucy is 10 and Sue is 7.

L.: Mum, she's eating my sandwich!

S.: No, it's my sandwich!

L.: Mom, tell her!

M.: Oh, girls, stop it, please. And be quiet!

A.: My phone!

I.: Andy? Bye, enjoy your family day!

1.32 Unit 1, 1.7, Exercise 7

2 Q: Can you load the dishwasher, please? (A: I'm sorry, I can't. I'm ...)

3 Q: Can you put away these clothes, please? (A: No problem. / Yes, of course.)

4 Q: Can I help you with the cooking? (A: No, that's fine, thank you.)

1.34 Unit 1, Get Culture, Exercise 3

1 Hi, I'm Hailey and I often visit my cousins in Darwin, a city in the north of Australia. They have two seasons there: a rainy season and a season with no rain. I wouldn't like to visit Darwin in the rainy season. There are terrible storms and it's too hot and wet to do anything. Darwin is on the coast, but we don't swim in the sea, because it's dangerous. There are crocodiles in the water. The best thing about Darwin is the Mindil Beach Sunset Market. You can buy all kinds of food from the stalls: Chinese, Japanese, Italian, Indian, Greek, Turkish, Mexican. There's music, too and we listen to the bands, sit on the beach, watch the sunset. Magic!

2 I'm Ken and my family and I are visiting Sydney, Australia's biggest city. Did you know that Sydney's got more than 1000 beaches. We're at Bondi Beach today. That's Sydney's most famous beach. People come here to sunbathe and do water sports like swimming and surfing. Australians love sports. They play Australian football, rugby, cricket, tennis, golf, but there're other things to do, too. There're parks and an amazing zoo, where you can see kangaroos, koalas, snakes and other fantastic animals. I think that Sydney is the coolest city in the world!

1.36 Unit 2, 2.1, Exercise 6

- a Take a basket.
- h Check the price.
- c Put your shopping in the basket.
- f Stand in a queue.
- e Pay for the shopping in cash.
- d Get your change and your receipt.
- b Carry your shopping to the car.
- g Go home and put your shopping away.

1.37 Unit 2, 2.1, Exercise 7

1 A: There're a lot of people here today.

B: Never mind. Now, stand behind that old lady over there.

2 A: Are we ready to go now?

B: Yes, we are. Now, let's take all these things to the car.

3 A: How much are those biscuits?

B: There're only 1 pound.

A: Are you sure? Look at the price again.

4 A: Do you want to pay in cash or by card?

B: I'd like to pay in cash, please.

5 A: Ok, Ben, Now, put the eggs, butter and milk in the fridge and put the pasta on the table.

B: Ok, mum. But what about the tomatoes?

1.40 Unit 2, 2.2, Exercise 5

Harry: I don't believe it! This is Gran's bag!

George: What? How?

Harry: 'Daisy Doll – clothes for dolls' ...

George: It's a doll's bag! That's why it was so cheap.

Gran: Hello, boys!

George: Hi, Gran.

Gran: What have you got behind your back, Harry?

Harry: Nothing ...

George: Is that a new bag?

Gran: Yes, it is. It's an early birthday present from Emma. Do you like it?

George: Yes, it's a nice, big bag.

1.43 Unit 2, 2.3, Exercise 3

1 Pi: My new hat is too small!

Millie: Yes, you're right. It's not big enough.

2 Rob: This science book is boring!

Dr Q: I agree. It's not interesting enough.

3 Dr Q: The water is too cold.

Pi: Yes, it's not warm enough.

4 Pi: This music is too quiet.

Dr Q: Yes, it's not loud enough.

5 Pi: This tablet is too slow.

Rob: You're right. It's not fast enough.

1.47 Unit 2, 2.4, Exercise 4

b This is really cool! Excuse me, do you have this jumper in black?

h Yes, we do. What size are you?

a Medium.

c I'm afraid we only have dark blue in medium.

e That's a nice colour, too.

f Here you are. Dark blue, medium.

g Where can I try it on?

d The changing rooms are over there.

1.50 Unit 2, 2.6, Exercises 2,3

1 Gabby

I like the pink one, with the light. I think it looks really cool. What's the price? 70 pounds! That's too expensive. It's the most expensive of all the speakers. Maybe, the Sun and Sea speaker is better. You can take it to the beach and not worry about water. And it's the cheapest. Only 15 pounds. That's 55 pounds cheaper than the On-the-Glo' speaker.

2 Mark

I don't think that pink On-the-Glo' has a good design. I think it looks like a bedside lamp. In my opinion, the Mini speaker is better. It's the smallest and you can carry it in your pocket. And it isn't as expensive as the On-the-Glo' speaker.

3 Tim

I like the Mini speaker, but it isn't loud enough. I don't like the Sun and Sea speaker. It's the biggest and I think it's too big to carry around. I think that On-the-Glo' speaker is the best choice. It isn't as small as the Mini, but I don't mind. It's the loudest and it's got the best design.

1.52 Unit 2, 2.7, Exercise 6

A.: Good morning. Can I help you?

S.: Yes, please. I'm looking for a new jacket. I like this one, but I'm not sure about the colour. Do you have it in blue?

A.: Yes, we do. What size are you? Medium or large?

S.: Large.

A.: Here you are.

S.: Can I try it on?

A.: Yes, of course. The changing rooms are over there.

S.: Thank you.

1.53 Unit 2, Skills Revision 1&2, Exercise 5

A: Here we are. This is the school's new café.

B: Great! It's not as big as the school's canteen, but it looks nice, it's very modern. And what's it called?

A: The Sandwich café. It just serves sandwiches. The Sandwich café doesn't have a chef. We, the students, are the chefs. A different class makes sandwiches every day. Some students from class 9, say, are making sandwiches right now.

B: This is really interesting! Who does the shopping?

A: The chefs from the school canteen do that for us.

B: What else do the students do?

A: We do everything. We load and empty the dishwasher and we set and clear the tables too.

B: What's the most interesting job?

A: Making the sandwiches! But there are other jobs, too. The cashier's job is very important.

B: What happens with the money?

A: Each class collects the money they made to spend on their school trips or theatre tickets.

B: What about your classes, Laura? I hope, you have time for studying.

A: Don't worry, Mrs Smith. We have time for studying. The Sandwich café only opens from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. So we have time to do our homework after that.

2.2 Unit 3, 3.1, Exercise 3

Julie Reed and her parents are planning their next holiday. This summer they would like to go to Crete, an island in Greece.

Julie

I'd like to go camping and hiking. I love walking in the mountains.

Mrs Reed

I'd love to go cycling and go on a boat trip. I love the sea.

Mr Reed

I'd like to go on a guided tour and try the local food. Trying new things is exciting.

2.3 Unit 3, 3.1, Exercise 6

It's Monday.

Mrs Reed: I'm tired. Let's go back to the hotel.

Julie: Come on, Mum! We want to walk around Rethymnon. It's a beautiful town and maybe we can find a nice shop to buy some souvenirs.

Mrs Reed: It's too hot.

Mr Reed: We can have something to drink and rest at that little café.

It's Tuesday.

Mrs Reed: Mmm, this is yummy!

Julie: I don't want to eat these funny vegetables! Can't I have a pizza?

Mrs Reed: These funny vegetables are delicious and you can have a pizza at home.

It's Wednesday.

Julie: Crete is so beautiful!

Mrs Reed: Oh, there's the sea! I just want to sit down and relax!

Mr Reed: Don't stand in the sun too long. I'm going to sit under an umbrella.

It's Thursday.

Mrs Reed: Right. Have we got everything? Tents? Sleeping bags? Torch?

Julie: Don't worry, mum. Dad's got everything.

Mrs Reed: Ok, then. Let's go!

It's Friday.

Mr Reed: Maggie, have you got the map?

Mrs Reed: Yes, dear.

Mr Reed: Are we ready?

Mrs Reed: I think so. I've got the picnic food and drinks. And Julie is in the car, she's waiting.

2.6 Unit 3, 3.2, Exercise 5

Mum: Darling, can I have the passports, please?

Dad: Oh, no!

Mum: Please, tell me you didn't leave them behind!

Dad: I put them in the travel wallet.

Mum: And where's the travel wallet?

Dad: Back home! I left it on the stairs!

Mum: We've got just enough time to go and get it!

2.7 Unit 3, 3.1, Exercise 7

drink-drank; give-gave; get-got; have-had; leave-left; meet-met; put-put; read-read; spend-spent; swim-swam; take-took; go-went.

2.8 Unit 3, 3.1, Exercise 9

c Last summer, my parents wanted to go camping, so we went to the Lake District.

a The weather wasn't good. We spent all the time inside our tents and drank tea to keep warm.

b I didn't have much fun, but I read three interesting books!

d On the last day, it finally stopped raining. But I was happy to go home.

2.10 Unit 3, 3.3, Exercise 4

1 Pi: Were you and Rob on time for the film?

Dr Q: Yes, we were.

2 Pi: Did you go by taxi?

Dr Q: Yes, we did.

3 Pi: Was the film very long?

Dr Q: No, it wasn't.

4 Pi: Did Brian Gosley give you his autograph?

Dr Q: No, he didn't.

5 Pi: Were you and Rob tired after the party?

Dr Q: No, we weren't.

6 Pi: Did you bring me a present from London?

Dr Q: Yes, we did. It's a cap.

2.11 Unit 3, 3.3, Exercise 6

Rob: What did you and Pi do on Saturday?

Millie: We went to the cinema, too.

Rob: What film did you see?

Millie: Crazy Animals 3.

Rob: Was it good?

Millie: No, it wasn't. It was silly.

Rob: Did Pi eat popcorn?

Millie: Yes, he did. He loves it.

Rob: What did you do after the cinema?

Millie: We met Pi's friends.

Rob: Were Pi's friends at the cinema, too?

Millie: No, they weren't. We had a picnic in the park.

2.14 Unit 3, 3.4, Exercise 3

1 A: Could you bring me my bag, please?

B: Yes, of course. Where is it?

2 A: Can I borrow some money from you?

B: Yes, no problem.

3 A: Can you give me the train timetable, please?

B: Sorry, I can't. I can't find it.

4 A: Can you help me with my homework?

B: Not now, sorry. I'm busy.

2.15 Unit 3, 3.4, Exercise 5

Laura, Sam, have you got all your things?

Laura: I can't find my brown monkey.

Mum: Oh, your monkey, Laura?

Laura: Yes, the souvenir.

Mum: Oh, that monkey. It's under the table, next to Sam.

Laura: Hey, Sam. Can you bring it to me?

Sam: Just give me a minute. Here you are.

Laura: Thanks.

Sam: Can you see my guidebook?

Laura: Yes, it's here under the sleeping bag. Hey, Dad, there's a map under the sleeping bag, too. Do you want it?

Dad: No, thanks, Laura. Put it in the bin. But can you bring me the torch? It's on the shelf.

Laura: Sorry, I can't. It's too high.

Mum: It's ok. Here's your torch, dear. Now, where's my tablet? Sam! Stop playing with the tablet and give it to me!

Dad: Ok. Ready, everyone?

Laura: Ready.

Sam: Yes, dad.

Mum: Yes, dear.

2.18 Unit 3, 3.6, Exercise 2, 3

Teacher: Good morning, class! Did you have a good holiday?

All: Yes!

Teacher: Sandra, you went to Rome, right? What was it like?

Sandra: It was good. I love the Italians and I made a lot of friends. And the food was fantastic, but we spent a lot of time sightseeing.

Teacher: What did you see?

Sandra: Oh, old buildings and museums. I got tired. Walking around museums is hard work.

Teacher: What about you, Derek?

Derek: My sister and I went to our grandparents' farm. Mum and dad didn't come with us, because they were at work. We helped granny and granddad at the farm, we looked after the animals. It was fun!

Teacher: That's nice. Alicia, what about you?

Alicia: We usually go to the mountains, but this year we went to Jamaica.

Teacher: A tropical holiday?

Alicia: Yes, it was the best holiday of my life. It was hot and we went swimming and did a lot of water sports. Jamaica is a beautiful island. I want to go there again.

Teacher: Lucky Alicia! And Ian, what did you do?

Ian: We went to Scotland. My dad takes us to his family village in Scotland every year. We went hiking in the mountains and it was great. I wanted to go swimming, but the water in the lake was too cold. But that's ok. We had fun.

Teacher: And Betty, what about you?

2.20 Unit 3, 3.7, Exercise 6

1 A: Can you drive me to the town centre?

B: Not now, sorry. I'm very busy.

2 A: Could you bring me my laptop, please? It's in my room.

B: Yes, of course.

3 A: Can you give me the map, please?

B: Yes, no problem. Here it is.

2.22 Unit 3, Get Culture, Exercise 3

1 Hi, I'm Kelly and I'm from Hawaii Island. That's the biggest of the 8 main islands of the state of Hawaii. Every July my family and I spend our vacation in the south of the island. Hawaii Island is beautiful and it's got rain forests, fantastic beaches and volcanoes. At night you can see the fire and the red lava from the volcanoes. It's awesome. There're black beaches in the south, but we don't go swimming there because the sea is dangerous. We go hiking and we play a lot of golf.

2 I'm Adam and I live in Miami in Florida. We sometimes go to the Everglades for our vacations. The Everglades are wetlands with a lot of grass and there're rivers there too. There are amazing birds and wild animals there and I love taking photos of them. We don't go swimming in the Everglades, it's dangerous because of alligators in the water. Dad goes fishing, but my brother and I prefer going for boat rides.

3 I'm Isabella and I'm from Boston. Last vacation we drove from Denver in Colorado to the Rocky Mountains and spent a week there. The mountains and forests were awesome! The lakes in the mountains were beautiful too, but they were too cold for swimming. We went hiking and saw wild animals – a black bear and a mountain lion. We also went horse riding which was fun.

2.24 Unit 4, 4.1, Exercises 5,6

I – Interviewer, S – Speaker

Hi, I'm Matt and I'm doing a survey about the things we can't live without, because they make our lives easy.

I: Hello, can I ask you a question?

S: Sure.

I: Are you good with technology?

S: I think so.

I: What is the one thing you use the most, except your smartphone, of course?

S: I guess it's the remote control. When we lose it, we can't watch TV, because no one wants to get up and change the channels.

I: Hello, can you name an electrical item you can't live without?

S: Oh, there are lots. But the toaster is very important. I always have toasts and orange juice for breakfast in the morning. Always.

I: Excuse me, we're doing a survey. Which is the one electrical item you use absolutely every day?

S: Well, that's easy. My electric toothbrush. I carry it in my bag every day.

I: Ok, that's unusual.

S: Well, I have lunch at work and I really need to brush my teeth after that.

I: But why an electric toothbrush?

S: Because it cleans my teeth better!

I: Hi. Name one electrical item you can't live without.

S: Gosh! The microwave oven, the new smart TV.

I: No, just one. Choose.

S: The microwave oven.

I: Not the TV? You sure?

S: Yes, I am.

I: Why?

S: Because it's fast. I'm not patient when I'm hungry.

2.28 Unit 4, 4.2, Exercise 5

George: How about that?

Poppy: That's a photo of me and Harry with Adrianna!

George: I took a photo of you and one of Harry and the app put the three photos together.

Emma: Let's send it to Harry! He'll love it!

2.29 Unit 4, 4.2, Exercise 8

Dad: Hi, everyone!

Beth: Hi, dad. How are you?

Dad: Fine, thanks. I called about 5 o'clock from the supermarket, but there was no answer. What were you all doing?

Beth: At 5, we were all at the living room. Chris and Kate were playing a board game. Well, Kate wasn't really playing. She was talking on the phone.

Dad: Oh, yes. She talks on the phone all the time.

Beth: Chris didn't like it.

Dad: How about Frank?

Beth: He was listening to music and singing.

Dad: What were you doing, darling?

Beth: I was trying to watch my favourite show, but there was so much noise.

Dad: Oh, poor Beth!

Beth: Only Bob was quiet.

Dad: Really? What was he doing?

Beth: Bob was sleeping on the sofa.

2.31 Unit 4, 4.3, Exercise 3

1 Rob was watering the plants when the storm started.

2 Doctor Q and Pi were making smoothies when the postman arrived.

3 Millie was cleaning when she broke Doctor Q's favourite cup.

4 Pi was having a shower when the water stopped.

2.32 Unit 4, Exercise 6

Dr Q: This is my first robot, Pi. It's very old. Turn it on carefully.

Robot: Hello! I'm CX-546.

Pi: I can't hear it. It's talking too quietly.

Dr Q: How about now?

Robot: HELLO! I'm CX-546!!!

Pi: Now it's speaking too loudly. CX-546 is very slow. Can't he walk faster?

Dr Q: No, but he knows how to make toast really well. Here, try this!

2.37 Unit 4, 4.6, Exercises 2,3

Interviewer: Hello, listeners and welcome to Time to Talk. Our first caller is Neil. Hi, Neil! Tell us your story!

Neil: Well, it was my Mum's birthday and dad and I wanted to make a special breakfast for her. Mum was having a long hot bath, so we went into the kitchen quietly. Dad was making pancakes when I put some strawberries and milk in the blender to make a smoothie. Mum loves smoothies. But I didn't put the lid of the blender on properly. So, when I turned on the blender, the strawberry smoothie went everywhere. What a mess! I felt so silly.

Interviewer: And now, Meryl. What's your story?

Meryl: One winter afternoon I was alone at home. I was doing my homework when the lights went out. The battery of my laptop was low, but we have a portable charger, so I charged my laptop and finished my homework. Then, it's started getting dark and I hate being alone in the dark. I was so happy when Mum and Dad came home. We didn't watch TV or have a hot meal that evening, because there was no electricity. But we had sandwiches and sat in front of the fire and told stories! It was a lovely evening!

1 A: You don't look happy, Colin. What's wrong?

B: I was having a shower when the hot water ran out.

2 A: I can't come to the party tonight.

B: That's a shame!

3 A: You look worried. What happened?

B: My cat is very ill.

A: That's terrible!

2.40 Unit 4, Skills Revision 3&4, Exercise 3

Tom: What did you do yesterday, Betty?

Betty: I went on a day trip to Chester with Mum, Dad and my best friend Sue.

Tom: Chester is an interesting city. Did you enjoy it?

Betty: No, I didn't.

Tom: Why? What happened?

Betty: Festival. We went by car. The weather was bad. So Dad had to drive very slowly and carefully. We were driving for 3 hours. What's more, when Dad stopped suddenly, the hot chocolate I was drinking in the car went all over my new smartphone and the touchscreen broke.

Tom: Poor you!

Betty: Right. And that's not all. When we arrived we went on the guided tour of the city with some other tourists. Sue and I got bored, so we went into a clothes shop. When we came out, our group wasn't there.

Tom: What did you do?

Betty: I tried to call them, but my touchscreen wasn't working and Sue didn't have her phone. We went to look for Mum and Dad, but we got lost. We were very worried, because it was late and it was getting dark. So we went into a café. We were drinking cola, when Mum and Dad walked in.

Tom: Were they angry?

Betty: No, not really. They were very happy to see us.

2.42 Unit 5, 5.1, Exercise 4

1 I'm Super Sue, I don't feel very well today. I have a runny nose. Oh, boy. It's very runny.

2 I'm Action Ann. I didn't sleep last night, because I have toothache. It's horrible. I can't eat anything. I need to see the dentist.

3 Hi, I'm Terrific Tom. I feel bad, very bad. I'm cold, but my head is hot. I think I have a temperature. I need to stay in bed for a few days.

4 Hi, I'm Wonder Wendy. I feel horrible. I have a sore throat. I can't eat or talk. I just drink lots of warm tea with honey.

5 I'm Fantastic Frank. I have a really bad cough. I'm coughing all the time.

6 Hi. I'm Mega Max. I feel really unwell to... I can't stop sneezing!

All: Bless you!

2.45 Unit 5, 5.2, Exercise 5

Emma: How are you doing Poppy? Oh, that's great! I'm glad you're better.

Emma: What? Oh, that's my gran. She's got the flu. She caught it from my aunt.

Emma: Poppy says, “Get well soon”, Gran!

Emma: Gran says, “Thank you!”

2.50 Unit 5 5.4, Exercise 4

1 A: Ouch! My finger!

B: Let me see... It’s a small cut, but you should put a plaster on it.

2 A: I feel terrible.

B: Have you got a headache?

A: Mmm

B: Then you should take a painkiller and lie down.

3 A: Ugh

B: That’s a nasty bruise, son. You should put some ice on it.

A: You should put some cream on it after the ice, too.

4 A: You don’t look well.

B: It’s that tooth again.

A: Oh, dear. You should take a painkiller now and see the dentist as soon as possible.

2.53 Unit 5, 5.5, Exercise 5

1 My partner and I are going to be in an Italian show next week. We’ve got fantastic music and we practice every day. I can lift my partner easily, because all this exercise is making my muscles super strong.

2 I go to the swimming pool every morning before school. I’m very fit. I never get ill and I have lots of energy. I think everyone should do it.

3 I don’t like taking the bus and I don’t like walking, so I ride my bike to school every day. It’s 8 kilometres away, but I’m fit so it’s ok. And I enjoy riding my bike with my friends at the weekend too.

2.54 Unit 5, 5.6, Exercise 2, 3

I – Interviewer, S – Speaker

I: And now back to Get ready for it. I’m talking with coach Steve Roberts. Steve, what advice can you give to young people who want to prepare for an important basketball match?

S: Well, my advice is the same for all sports. Practise often. Three times a week if you can. Look after your body.

I: Should you have a big meal before a game to give you energy?

S: No, you can’t play on a full stomach. A good meal 2 or 3 hours before a match is chicken or fish, potatoes and a salad. If you’re still hungry, a good snack is some fruit and lots of water.

I: What else?

S: Sleep is important for your body and your brain. You don't have to sleep more than usual, but you shouldn't go to bed late the night before a game. In a basketball game my players have to think quickly and move quickly.

I: Anything else?

S: You should always do a good warm-up. Start with some exercises to get your muscles ready for hard work. And one more very important thing: you have to stay positive. You don't win a match only with practice, you win because you think you can win.

I: Thanks, Steve. That's great advice.

1 A: You don't look well.

B: I've got a headache.

A: Why don't you lie down and take a painkiller?

2 A: What's the matter?

B: I've got mosquito bites all over my body!

A: You should put some cream on them.

B: Good idea.

2.58 Unit 5, Get Culture, Exercise 4

I – Interviewer, A – Ashley, J – Jake

I: Hello and welcome to What's on. In today's programme I'm talking to two young British teens about what they watch on TV. Ashley, what are your favourite programmes?

A: Hmm, documentaries? And... sitcoms.

I: What kinds of documentaries?

A: About wildlife and science. They're the best. They're interesting and you learn a lot. Mum and Dad like them too, so we watch them together. It's nice doing things as a family.

I: Do you also watch sitcoms together?

A: Erm, no. I like American sitcoms, I think they're funny, but Dad doesn't enjoy them and Mum prefers soap operas.

I: What do you think of soap operas?

A: They're boring. They're all the same and the stories are silly.

I: Now, Jake what about your favourite programmes?

J: I like sports programmes and Dad and I always watch football on TV. We're Nottingham Forest fans.

I: Do you watch other programmes together?

J: No. You see, Mom and Dad love watching the news. Sometimes they watch it three times every night on different channels. It's awful!

3.4 Unit 6, 6.1, Exercise 7

M: Tom, I need help. Aunt Helen is coming for dinner.

T: Sure, Mum. What can I do?

M: We need to make a desert. Now what fruit have we got?

T: Hmm, 3 apples, 6 bananas and 4 oranges.

M: Excellent. We need the bananas.

T: Ok.

M: Peel them and slice them. Then put them in this cake tin. That's right. Now for the sauce put some sugar in a bowl, add some butter and a little lemon juice. Mix the sauce for a few minutes.

T: It smells nice, Mum.

M: Put the sauce over the bananas. Good! Now put the cake tin in the oven and bake the bananas for 15 minutes.

T: What can we add to the bananas?

M: Well, there's Greek yoghurt or ice-cream. What do you think?

T: Ice-cream, please.

3.7 Unit 6, 6.2, Exercise 5

Emma: Gran? There aren't enough chips for everyone.

Gran: That bowl was full a few minutes ago! Who's eaten them?

George: It wasn't me!

Emma: Or me!

Harry: Sorry! It was me. But I've left some for you.

Emma: Nine chips? Wow! Thanks ...

Gran: No need to argue! Harry, start peeling potatoes! You've got a lot of chips to make! Chop-chop!

3.9 Unit 6, 6.2, Exercise 10

- She has eaten the apple.
- She has used the plate.
- She hasn't washed the mug.
- She has drunk the water.
- She has sliced the bread.
- She hasn't made tea.
- She hasn't eaten the cake.

3.11 Unit 6, 6.3, Exercise 6

I – Interviewer, S – Speaker

I: You would like to take part in our programme? Have you ever been on TV?

S: No, I haven't.

I: Have you ever taken part in a cooking competition?

S: No, I haven't, but I would like to do it.

I: I see. Have you ever baked a cake?

S: Yes, I have. That's easy. I love baking.

I: Have you ever made ice-cream?

S: Yes, I have. I think it was good.

I: Have you ever tried chocolate biscuits with chilly?

S: No, I haven't.

I: You can try making them in the Big Bake! Welcome to the programme!

3.14 Unit 6, 6.4, Exercise 3

P.: I'm thirsty. Can I have a drink?

M.: Sure. Would you like juice or water?

P.: I'd like some water, please.

A.: I'd prefer some juice, Mickey.

M.: Now, would you like to watch a DVD or play a game?

P.: I don't mind.

A.: You choose.

M.: Ok, let's watch a DVD, then.

A: Mum, where're we going on holiday this year? The beach is boring.

B: Well, where would you like to go: the mountains or lake Faustos?

A: I'd prefer to go to the lake. There we can go swimming and kayaking, and hiking...

B: Good idea!

A: The problem is, there're too many people in August. Would you prefer to go at the end of July or the beginning of September?

B: I don't mind.

A: I think September is probably better than July or August.

B: Ok.

B: And we can go camping! Oh, I hope the weather is good.

A: Oh, Ben. It always rains when we go camping. A hotel would be much better. Then we don't have to take the car. Would you like to go by train or by plane?

B: Train, please. I don't want to fly.

A: I can't wait!

3.18 Unit 6, 6.6, Exercise 2, 3

S: Hi, Gran. It's me, Sidney. I need your help.

G: Of course, dear. What's the matter?

S: Mum and Dad have a lot of housework today, so I want to make lunch for them.

G: Why don't you make a frittata?

S: What's that?

G: It's like an omelette, but better.

S: What do I need?

G: Some eggs, two potatoes, a tomato, salt and pepper.

S: Eggs, potatoes, tomato, salt, pepper. Ok, is that all?

G: Hmm, let me think... No, you also need some cheese.

S: And cheese. How many eggs do I need?

G: For three people – five eggs.

S: Now what?

G: First, peel the potatoes. Then boil them for 10 minutes. Ask Mum to help you with that. After that, slice the potatoes. Be careful with the knife.

S: Ok and then?

G: Slice the tomato.

S: Ok.

G: Now, the eggs. Beat them well. Add salt and pepper.

S: Ok.

G: Put some oil in a frying pan. Add the eggs, the potatoes and the tomato. Cook the frittata for 2 or 3 minutes.

S: And it's ready?

G: No. Then you put 100 grams of cheese on it. Finally, cook the frittata for a few more minutes.

S: Great! Thanks, Gran. I love you.

G: I love you too.

3.20 Unit 6, 6.7, Exercise 7

b Wow! I'm thirsty!

d Would you like orange juice or cola?

a I'd like some orange juice, please.

g Here you are. Now, would you like to watch TV or play football?

f I'd prefer to watch TV. It's too hot to go outside.

c What programme would you like to watch?

e I don't mind. You choose.

3.21 Unit 6, Skills Revision 5&6, Exercise 3

M: Can you give me a hand at the café today, Jo?

J: Ok, Mum. But where's Mary? She usually helps you on Saturdays.

M: Mary fell over when she was running. She hasn't broken her arm, but she has got a lot of bruises.

M: I know you have your football practice on Saturday mornings, but I really need help today.

J: That's ok, Mum. I can help. There isn't football practice this morning.

M: Oh, why's that?

J: Mr Sullivan can't train the team today, because he's got bad earache.

M: Well, a lot of people have a stomachache at the moment.

J: I said, earache, Mum.

M: Yes, sorry.

M: But I'm so happy you can help. You don't have to stay all day. I know you also have a Math lesson in the afternoon.

J: That's fine, Mum. I can see the café is busy this morning.

M: Yes, it is. Can you set the table next to the window, please?

J: No problem, Mum. Where are the knives, forks and spoons?

M: They're in the dishwasher. I haven't emptied it today.

J: Are the plates in the dishwasher too?

M: No, they aren't. They're on the kitchen table. They're clean.

J: Mum, have you made your special chocolate cake today?

M: Yes, I have. I've made two chocolate cakes.

J: What's that cake in the cake tin? It smells lovely.

M: It's my special lemon cake. I've made it today too. Careful, it's hot!

J: What're you making now, Mum?

M: Vegetable soup.

J: Do you need any help with the vegetables?

M: Well, I've chopped the carrots. Can you peel those potatoes, please?

J: Of course. What about the onions?

M: Thanks, but I've sliced the onions. They're in the frying pan.

M: Joe, what time do you have to leave for your lesson?

J: The bus is at quarter to five, so I have to leave at half past four if that's ok.

M: I'm sorry I can't take you home. But we close at 7 o'clock today.

J: That's ok. See you later.

3.25 Unit 7, 7.1, Exercise 7

I – Interviewer, J – Jack, L – Lilly

I: So, our first caller today is Jack. Where do you live, Jack? Tell me about your home.

J: I'm from Cornwall and I love living in the country. My family and I live in an old cottage. We have a big garden at the back at the cottage. We can sit there when the weather is good.

I: Have you got your own bedroom?

J: Yes, I have. It's in the attic. My brother's bedroom is in the attic too.

I: Thanks, Jack. And now our next caller is Lilly. What type of home do you live in, Lilly?

L: It's a semi-detached house in the north of England.

I: Do you live in the country?

L: No. It's just a small town.

I: Have you got a garden?

L: Yes, it's small, but it's very pretty. And the house is nice too. There's a kitchen, the dining room and the living room downstairs. And the bedrooms are upstairs. My bedroom is small, but I love it.

3.28 Unit 7, 7.2, Exercise 5

Emma: But that is ... no way! It's that house, over there! I can see it!

Poppy: Surprise! We're moving even closer. I can see your window from my window!

Emma: I don't believe it!

3.30 Unit 7, 7.3, Exercise 5

Pi: Can I play a computer game?

Rob: Not here, Pi. You mustn't touch the lab computer.

Pi: Why not? You and Millie can use it.

Rob: It's only for work, Pi. We mustn't play games on it. You can take this tablet.

Pi: OK. Oh, there's Rock Band! I love this game!

Rob: You mustn't make too much noise because we're working. Here, you can put on these headphones.

Pi: Yay!

3.34 Unit 7, 7.4, Exercise 3

1 A: Freddie and I are going to town this afternoon. Can you come with us?

B: Sorry, Mum and I are visiting Grandpa. Maybe next time.

2 A: Hi, Jen. Do you want to hang out on Friday evening?

B: Yes, I'd love to, thanks.

3 A: Uncle Joe is taking us to the beach on Saturday. Would you like to come?

B: I'm sorry, I can't. I'm busy on Saturday.

4 A: Are you free this afternoon? Would you like to go cycling with me?

B: I'd love to, but I have a music lesson. What about tomorrow? We can go cycling in the park.

A: That sounds fun.

3.37 Unit 7, 7.6, Exercise 2,3

M: Hi, Angie! It's me, Mark.

A: Hi, Mark! It's great to hear you. How are you?

M: I'm fine. But you don't sound happy. What's wrong?

A: I'm ok, but I really miss living in a village.

M: Don't you like the city? What about your new flat, your neighbours?

A: The city's ok and the flat's lovely, but the neighbours... I don't know them. Lots of people live in our block of flats and no one even says "Hello" to me.

M: Why don't you have a "neighbours afternoon"?

A: What's that?

M: Well, it's just an afternoon when you meet and chat with neighbours. You know where we live – lots and lots of terraced houses. Well, this is what we do in my street. One afternoon every summer we switch off our TVs, computers and phones. We don't sit inside, we go into our front gardens or visit the neighbours in their gardens. We make cakes and snacks and chat with our neighbours. We put comfortable chairs outside for the older people. And we can play music, too. It's a great way to meet people.

A: It sounds interesting.

M: In fact, we're having a "neighbours afternoon" on Saturday! Tomorrow I'm helping Mum to tidy the garden.

A: Hmm, it sounds fun. Maybe I can ask Mum and Dad to organise a "neighbours afternoon" here. Maybe we can have it in the park.

3.39 Unit 7, 7.7, Exercise 7

1 A: Dad's taking me to the zoo this weekend. Can you come?

B: I'm sorry, I can't, maybe next time.

2 A: Do you want to hang out this afternoon?

B: I'd love to, but I'm visiting my cousins.

3 A: Are you free next Sunday? Would you like to come to my house for a barbecue?

B: That sounds fun. Thank you.

3.41 Unit 7, Get Culture, Exercise 5

1 Hi, I'm Gavin and I'm from the south-east of England. We usually have a traditional family lunch on Sundays – roast beef, roast potatoes, Yorkshire pudding and vegetables. What I really love about this meal is Yorkshire pudding. We make it with flour, eggs, milk and oil and it has the shape of a little ball. You can put any type of food you like in it, but Yorkshire pudding is really yummy with roast beef and gravy.

2 I'm Morwenna and I'm from Cornwall in the south-west of England. One of the most famous Cornish dishes is Stargazy pie. We make it with fish, eggs and potatoes. It's unusual, because we also use heads of the fish. It's really funny. The heads stick out of the top of the pie and they look up at the stars. That's why we call the pie Stargazy. "Gazy" comes from "gaze" which means "look at something". The pie tastes like fish, but it has a lot of fans around here.

3.45 Unit 8, 8.1, Exercise 6

1 I'm Jake and I'm 38. I always wanted to have a family and I'm glad to say I have a great wife and two kids. I also wanted to live abroad, but I've never done that. I have my own business and it's hard to get away from my job. Maybe one day I can sell the business and see the world.

2 Hi, I'm Sally and I'm 22. I have two brothers and two sisters and when I lived at home I shared a bedroom with my sisters. It wasn't easy and I wanted to live on my own. Today I have my own flat far away from my hometown. Do I like it? No, I don't. I miss my family.

3 Hi, I'm Elsa and I'm 26. When I was 6, I wanted to be famous. I wanted to be an actress, but I also wanted to learn foreign languages so I went to university and studied French, Spanish and German. Now I'm a teacher! Well, I'm not famous, but I'm a member of a drama club and I still love acting.

3.48 Unit 8, 8.2, Exercise 5

Poppy: Hmm ... Here's a thought. You can be a sports doctor.

Harry: I like that! I'll treat sports injuries and I'll play tennis with sports stars! Thanks, Poppy!

3.54 Unit 8, 8.4, Exercise 3

1 A: This film is terrible!

B: You're right. Let's watch something else.

2 A: Everybody likes going to the beach.

B: That's not true. I don't like it. It's too hot.

3 A: Ankara is the biggest city in Turkey.

B: You're wrong. Istanbul is much bigger.

4 A: English is a very easy language.

B: I don't think so. I think, it's difficult.

3.55 Unit 8, 8.4, Exercise 4

I – Ivy, S – Steve

S: Ivy, what can I buy Mum for her birthday?

I: Her laptop is old. Buy her a tablet. That's a brilliant present!

S: I don't think so. Tablets are too expensive.

I: That's true.

S: What are you going to buy her?

I: Well, she loves making cakes.

S: That's true.

I: So, I'm going to buy her a book of cake recipes.

S: Good idea! I'm going to ask Dad. He knows what Mum likes.

I: I disagree. He always buys her the same thing – flowers.

S: You're right. What's Grandad going to buy her?

I: A tree.

S: A tree?

I: Yes, a tree! You know, for her garden.

S: I think that's a terrible present.

I: That's what I think too. Steve, I've got an idea. Mum loves her garden, right?

S: Yes.

I: Well, buy her some gardening gloves! She'll love them.

S: Brilliant idea. Thanks, Ivy.

3.59 Unit 8, 8.6, Exercise 2, 3

M – Mum, J – Jen, R - Robbie

R: That was a fantastic science fiction film!

J: It was ok, Robbie. The special effects were good, but the story was... ugh. It'll be terrible if the future is like the film. Will everybody live in buildings with 200 floors in those awful cities? No trees.

R: Don't be silly, Jen. It'll be awesome.

J: What do you think, Mum?

M: That was just a film, Jen. People will probably live in lots of different types of homes like they do now.

R: I think there won't be any schools.

J: Of course we'll have schools, Robbie. But they'll be different.

M: Jen's right. I think kids will use more technology in the future and they'll study online more, but I think they'll go to school sometimes to be with other students and the teachers.

R: I hope there won't be exams. What about work, Mum?

M: What do you think, Robbie?

R: I think we'll have different jobs. More people shop online, so there won't be shop assistants. Maybe everybody will work from home.

J: Or maybe robots will do all the boring jobs.

M: Well, I'm sure people will do a lot of the things we do now. They'll hang out with their friends and they'll have hobbies and make things, and sing, and play music, and...

3.61 Unit 8, 8.7, Exercise 7

1 A: The book was interesting.

B: I agree with you. I liked it too.

2 A: The city is better than the country.

B: I don't think so. I prefer the country.

3 A: Paris is bigger than Tokyo.

B: You're wrong. Tokyo is much bigger!

4 A: My sister is a better singer than me.

B: That's true, but you're better at sports.

5 A: Most people want to be famous.

B: I disagree. I think they want to be happy.

3.62 Unit 8, Skills Revision 7&8, Exercise 4

T – Tina, M – Martin

M: What are you doing tomorrow?

T: I'm going to my uncle's new flat. He only moved yesterday so we are helping him clean up and carry the rest of his bags up the stairs.

M: That doesn't sound like much fun.

T: That's right. His flat's on the top floor and there isn't a lift. And we're leaving home at 9:30 so I have to wake up early.

M: What time will you be home? Mum's taking my sister and me to the swimming pool in the afternoon. Then we're going to Jack's palace in the evening. Mum says, you can come.

T: That sounds great! I think we'll be home at 6 o'clock. Is that too late?

M: I'm sure it will be ok.

T: Have you ever been to Jack's palace?

M: No, I've never been there.

T: It's cool! I love the mirrors on the walls and you must try the spaghetti pizza.

M: A spaghetti pizza? That's different. How often do you go out for dinner with your family?

T: We usually go out on Fridays, but we didn't yesterday. We stayed at home, because Dad had a stomachache.

M: Ok, I must go. See you tomorrow at 6 o'clock. We mustn't arrive at Jack's palace late, because Mum says it's always busy.
