H. hears thy plans and approves

K. H. and H approve.

Let thy devotion be unswerving.

Many have faltered.

H. will help thy plans

The future will show the results of thy devotion

H. and K. H. do not forget -

Pleased at thy work.

Koreh will help!

My children - Our Blessings!

Work for humanity

You will be repayed.

H. shall remember.

H. is helping you always

H. needs you to prepare the way for the coming Avatar -

The way must be prepared.

Thou must be amongst the leaders

when thy work is done - you will come to Me and be My Children.

The path before you is a difficult - but certain one.

Prepare for it:

Thy days must be filled with thoughts of Me.

We shall have you ever in Our Hearts -

Anyone brings you a message from Me

- listen to him -

He brings you My wishes, My love, My greetings

He also bears a remembrance from Me that you know that thy Father has His children in His Heart.

Against you many will fight -

But none will conquer - for My warriors bear the banner of Michael the Archangel - and they shall dispel the darkness from the souls of men

H. is happy with thy plans

There must be no animosity among the workers

I have foreseen all troubles before the work was begun

I am with thee and the enmity of men will not prevent the work

The Name must be used - Master -

H. approves of the plan of action and will help in a way unforeseen.

The difficulties must first be overcome

The Name will be decided - You have done well

Remember a mistake in action is better than inaction!

Another month will bring great change.

The New ideas must be inaugurated.

The school must be a centre of Beauty, not for the few but for all!!

Once the work is begun, the ideas will unfold.

The help that will come, will be unexpected.

Prepare the way for the Institution of which you are dreaming

Modra - thou wert once at Saragossa.

You learnt then martyrdom,
Since then thou wert many times a martyr
Once you learnt the joy of death in the cause of truth,

The way was shown to you, and once the way is pointed out the ~~Traveler~~ traveler advances rapidly -
Thy work is given to thee - you knew it - long ago.
I shall soon reveal to thee thy former lives.
But not yet, only be brave!

The way opens very soon.

A light - will come before thou art aware.
On the pages of the book are written the words of thy services

- Add another page! Let the pen of time pen the words forever.

The days of great achievement are approaching
Look forward! Oh my little one!
Kiss that day with joy! Heart of flame!

H. R. H.

On Monday begin thy new work with joy,
for I am with thee!

On that day, thy mission in my Name begins!
Rejoice!!! SI SI

On the Himalaya peaks listens and understands Exult, oh warriors in the task!

On the heights One sees and understands.

Let the hearts of the workers be undivided.

Remember the school was founded as a sacred source from which all may drink,

Let none go thirsty.

Let all who seek the font of Beauty find it free.

Dream on, oh workers!

On the foundations of these dreams the Temple shall be built.

Its walls must be impregnable.

On the hearts must be inscribed the Name,

And that Name must be inviolable.

Oh, guard the sacred shrine from all assaults, for these will be many.

Oh let the hearts be steadfast.

Let the sacred shrine remain inviolate.

Guard it with thy heart's blood if need be.

On the Himalaya peaks the stranger watches the work.

Once passed these days of uncertainty the ways will open smoothly.

Be patient - oh my daughter.

The tears shed for me are pearls.

The dawn is close at hand.

All thy difficulties will vanish in the morning light.

Let the day find thy heart aflame -

Let thought of thy Father fill each hour.

Shout thy joy - sing loud the song.

Remember heart be brave.

In a short time light will come

Many things will be unfolded which are not understood.

On all points guard the ideals of thy heart
Be unwavering —

On the subject of thy work judge thy course with wisdom.
Be on guard against attacks, these are imminent,
Beware of the advances of false friends.

On thy guard!
Have thy trust in Me.

He on the opposite side of the earth hears each whisper of thy vice.

Be brave -- oh rest thy trust in Me.

While the world attack thee, He is on thy side.

Only this can determine the conquerors.

Make the most of thy present means.

I shall soon point-out the means of thy growth

Only be patient -- and all will be proven.

On thy heart engrave the sacred work,

Have faith in the living God,

Guard the sacred hearth and the Master will

M. has set this seal upon the labors.

On the heart's inmost corners the Name of Him, who guards thy soul is written

M. is thy blessed Father, Thy living God.

All worship His Name.

(Picture of mountains etc. with title: The road to the Himalayas)

On the path journeyed a traveler once through the perils of the way he went, minding not the vicissitudes

At the journey's end he found the object of his search.

On the way many were the hardships he encountered.

He turned not from the path

his eyes garded only the distant goal

And at the journey's end he found awaiting him a resplendent Being.

Only such valor will prevail.

Thou knowest the way once - find the way again.

On the way thou art guarded by my words - Thou art protected,

(Another picture with date 1929.)
In 1929 ^{there} will occur what thy vision has foreseen.
I once was at thy side of late.
One time thy heart spoke loud to you and whispered
My message.

Listen to thy heart - it shall reveal to you my wishes
Only let that be thy guide
Only regard its call.

(picture again with date 1929.)
Oh regard this date 1929
Begin to plan for that year.
Oh let thy heart rejoice!
Let thy labors continue. The school must have a firm foundation by then.
For thou wilt leave it. Remember.

1929 - 1929.
(picture).
N. on the Himalaya peaks awaits thee.
Only work. Only thy heart must be patient oh my daughter!

There will be much to pass through before,
Many battles are before thee. Be brave,
And the end will be beyond thy dream.
Tell Korch that happiness is in store for him.
His actions are observed. He must be patient -
I shall point out the way of growth.
Work, work, work all together in harmony and not other will conquer against you
Unity and compassion will prevail for love,
Beauty and action.

H. is with thee. Oh all his disciples, look upward, and behold His splendor!

It has seen the progress of the work.

On one of the days to come you will feel the presence of the Father.

You will be gathered together and shall feel His Presence like some glory hovering near thee.

Modra, guard well the portals

The enemy approaches

Beware, he advances upon the stronghold

It is with thee, be not afraid!

He comes armed, many are in his army

Yet my seven will be the conquerors.

Dangers disturb the labor

These will be overcome and all will progress.

My other warriors will soon be with you.

My leaders - they shall go within the year.

Be ready young ones to continue the work.

I shall be with thee there shall be no need of worry.

Be prepared for great activity

Modra - (Mamaway) 3 times (A M)

March be ready for a battle in My Name
Be forarmed and guard the temple
One will lead the enemy who is now among those pretending friendship.

Only be silent and ready and the battle will be averted

March may look for a house ¹⁰¹ 101 west -
I shall indicate which I wish for My dwelling
Let him begin at once

I will tell him which to choose 101 W.

Now search! All will be well

Let not the overhanging dangers disturb the labor.
There will be overcome and all will progress.

My other warriors will soon be with you

My leaders - they shall go within the year

Be ready - young ones to continue the work

I shall be with thee.

There shall be no need to worry

Be prepared for great activities
