Modra, last worked faithfully. Thy reward is at hand. A fateful day draws near. Thy eyes will be opened. It is near the seven, so close that they feel the glory near. White walls of great beginnings. Glory in thy destiny. It has layed his seal upon the first meeting of Corona Mundi. Such seed shall grow until a mighty tree, let the roots grow deep - the roots are seven. Brave children of My army, what glory awaits thee in the battle, Rush forward into the fight. Carry the banner of the Holy Name, uphold it. It shall blind the enemy with its beauty - 1927 - Michael - years of destiny, years of glory in its wake - year of light, year of splendor - 1927 - Michael - I have proclaimed it. Look forward and prepare. O you seven gathered together I send My blessings - Mrs. Wati, behold thy children and smile. Young hearts recruited for My army, young apostles ready to spread the light. It pours upon thee His also benign blessings.

Modra

M. has revealed to thee the pages of the book.
Read their message; study the glory of the hidden meaning — This reveals the path before thee, the path of sacrifice and martyrdom. It is a way fraught with sorrow of body and filled with pain & worms, but with spiritual glory. Thou art forewarmed, yet I know thou art not daunted. (9)

Hearts aflame... Sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice. It is the sesame to salvation. Adhar heard thy first call of service. Adhar answered that call. Thou died for him. Thou may be compelled to die again. Art thou ready? That is the supreme test. The great achievements must have their toll of human endeavor, perhaps life. Face this possibility: death but for this cause — the glory!

M. Has rejoiced in the clearing of the altar. The dust is wiped away. Let no second pass in anger.
Love each other. Horeh and Thou are brother and sister Love each other, ye warriors for land in land thou must fight—through fierce battles. It is not easy.

Sorrow even death faces you, but together you may achieve a goal beyond thy dreams. Twin warriors, my young children, prepare for the fight. Gird on each other's arms. March abreast. Face the enemy together.

Modra, Modra, Modra, Dost thou remember the golden gate? Dost thou remember Egypt?

Doest thou remember Tibet?

When the dream which is thy physical life is over, thou wilt remember these yesterdays sweet in service.
My arms have touched thee. My robe has covered thee, servant, daughter, thy future is not an easy one.
Thou must bear the brunt of great tasks, even crucifixion. Remember, be brave. Thou on the brink of happiness chose sorrow as thy cup, but thou shalt see the reward. Greater than power, greater than human offerings. Thou shalt reach Gethsemane. Thou art mine now and forever.
Remember daughter be brave. I am with you.
My little nodra.

† Crucifix and Salvation

And beyond, the Gates of Eternity Ie seven children of light. Be ready. The glory of thy father fills this room. Look for the flame, which enfolds thee. Thy father's ray touches each of thee, stirs the flame within thy hearts The quivering of thy spirit-reveals my message The dawn of a new era is immediately before thee

Be equipped for thy labors. Be ready. see as comes before thou art aware. This, my message. Discern its meaning. Rejoice in the trust. Be ready and look for the morrow.

M.

O rooma

You see the path of sacrifice before thee. Strive along the path of sacrifice. Little ones, tender ones, small ones lead to great ones. Keep My image before thee always, do work in My name.
Subar calls to thee and remembers thee.
My message to thee — Be patient little one Wonder of Wonders! Earth fragrant with the flowers of creation, radiant with palpitating life, filled with the thrilling of hearts attuned to her music, what is message of thy song? - Glory, glory, glory.

 I serve a cause of splendor. Rich in fulfillment I serve the cause of my Creator. I sing aloud - Listen to my laughter, the laughter of a Youth facing a picture of fulfillment. Hail to the spring time of Creator, Hail the summer of fulfillment, Hail an autumn rich in memory, Hail a winter of rest in thy God. Oh, that the days were endless, oh that the hours were numberless. For the glory of true service cannot be contained in time. They extend into the Infinity, their influence is eternal.

Modra, Modra, Modra -

Let thy eyes behold the sun upon the mountains.
 What iridescent splendors they reflect. High above the earth sentinels of a power incomprehensible, they have weathered the centuries, they have withstood the ages, they tower heavenwards - great stalwart pillars of the world. Look upwards, regard them as thy inspiration rocks of strength weathering the storm, struck by the lightning, blast but eyes stannant (17) Firm pillars - embodiment of strength.

The scene of to morrow's joy ye all shall earn it with strife - Nirvana, Nirvana, Nirvana is before thee Nirvana earned by that holiest of joys service <sup>for humanity</sup>. Gates of to-morrow! Behold them!

Look into the blessed garden. Thou hast the Key wherewith to open them. Behind thee are joys innumerable, joys so tender that the earth quivers at the tale of them. But before thee are joys still greater indefinable. The gates open and what is beyond words cannot utter the beauties therein.

The eye above is blinded by them, the ear is deafened by their thunder but the spirit understands. These are the joys which await the faithful labor and you that paid them. Serve and you shall earn their meaning. The way is straight ahead, the road is service. Therein is the essence of all joy. I say to thee - This joy is a flower of this garden Its buds are now growing, it shall blossom soon.

Immortal flower whose fragrance thou wilt partake (picture) flower of joy: breath its fragrance, its blossoms for thee.

My blessings to my children of gladness and laughter -

I smile, I smile, I smile when the echo of thy mirth reaches me!
Happy children, thy father partakes of thy laughter. The room is filled with sun light, joy buys up the labor, sweetness and light thy message to thee will bring sweetness and light from thy Father.

there are kinds of joy, but the greatest joy is in sacrifice, compassion, love for humanity. Thy spirit will reveal to thee the joy of the Universe search for it my children. Thy heart palpitate at the joy of to-morrow. Work and serve and you shall also find joy therein. Serve my child.

Your spirit is growing - be patient -

- Hand of Fate - Hand of Destiny, what dost thou write upon thy golden scroll?
- I write the message of Eternity.
- What is the message of Eternity, Beloved Father?
- The message of the Triloggy

Sacrifice - Joy - Prayer -

- Therein is summed up the glory of the Universe
- The stars tremble and rejoice with the glory of this message
- And man is transfigured in the comprehension of its Beauty

- Open thy heart, oh thou seven!
- Let the flood of knowledge pour in like a stream of light.
- Understanding shall come
- The Golden Beauty of the Unseen World shall fill thy beings.

Soon thy eyes shall open,
Be ready for the new understanding!
Purge thy hearts of the old prejudices Clean and refresh thy spirits for the new life immediately before thee.

First thou wilt see the blessed spheres Symbols of the Brotherhood of Light Let thy eyes not waver in regarding them Nor must thy heart shrink Bathe thy being in their Beauty The Trilogy has a close relation to the meaning of these spheres -

Remember these messages and thou shalt comprehend the meaning of the symbol.

23

I shall reveal more of these symbols soon.
Your lives are beginning to be closely moulded — The spirits are being entwined more strongly with each meeting.

The ages of karmic love which binds thy spirits have strengthened the ties and soon the spirits will be as one.

M. is with the guardians of the portals —

Open thy eyes and thou shalt see

Open thy ears and thou shalt hear

The light is near —

Pray, rejoice, sacrifice —

And the gates of Heaven will be opened to you —

The firmament will have no secrets that thou shalt canst not penetrate —

The joy of samadhi will be yours

Such is my message to you, my children,

Study its meaning, and devote your lives to the attainment of this bliss —

Thou art ever aided by thy fathers blessings

The fruits of the present labour will soon be apparent and will — see only part of the building — but the second tower is growing already. The foundation is being build even now, The days of my travail are not yet finished, but do not loose thy courage for though thou seest not the growth it is there in the spirit. It begins to grow. The soul within leaps to newed life. The making physical ~~organ~~ sees not the budding spirit. Suffering is the food upon which the soul is nurtured. He who has suffered, ye only understand, for he who has resign his all to this suffering born of the search for growth achieves a joy immeasurable. Suffering glorifies the soul and gives to the growing spirit a transcendent beauty, henceforth the school is in the hands of the seven. My seal of protection is upon it, but thou must gain the Karmic benefit to be derived from the construction of the temple. A force of tremendous Cosmic consequence controls all the work which you all now undertake and its effect will be apparent to you within your life time. This is no child's work, that you are attempting, its influence is universal, Nor will it suffer and disintegrate like that other now dying efforts.

The world thirsts for beauty. The tremendous halo court, which has engulfed its streams man-kind - arouse these lethargic souls and their thirst. Beauty alone is the salvation. Religions have lost forever their power to sooth the terrors of humanity. Ye who fight to bring beauty to the hearts of men are the veritable ~~missionaries~~ the true apostles. And it is thy Master who 29 ordained thee, then take thy garments of Priesthood.

The apostles of a gospel comprehensible to all humanity.
Do justice to the order of Beauty and of Love and the blessings of our holy Brotherhood shall forever be upon thee. Accept the Blessings of my brothers who also sent their Benediction —

O domar

The school will be a success and the entire universe from all the worlds will arrive to be shown to everyone. Give your heart and soul to this work which shall never be forgotten by the white

What does the symbol of the Holy Grail reveal of Master?

The portals of the Home of Purity.
Unlocks the portals and the treasure of the Universe is thine.

Within the Temple glow the words of wisdom crystallized into forms so luminous and radiant that the eye of the unillumined is blinded.
Thinkest thou that the precious gems of the earth are rarest?

It is not yet to see the radiance of vegetation of the world above.

And these gems are the glowing words of saints and prophets which become the treasures of the world of spirit.

The flowers of that benign Ring are the thoughts of men's souls which bloom in that eternal garden never to wither but to waft their fragrance throughout the centuries. Who shall have the influence of an unselfish thought. It will centenies long after its physical influence is forgotten. And receiving the sweet inspiration which created it brings happiness to multitudes.

Remember thy thoughts are powerful weapons.
Arrows to confound or rays of light to soothe and comfort. Choose wisely their use for kindness will repay the good. Men stand the more growing together in spirit. The waves of love which you bear for each other surround them as an impenetrable wall.

Let the attack of the enemy have it unshaken moved verily but the scars of battles are tributes of valor. In love thou shalt be together. A bond beyond earthly comprehension ties me to each other. Thou shalt be together hence forth through eternity. Together thou shalt reach the heights. Each has a place assigned in the building of the coming culture.

Already is thy work in the next root race known to Us, but be together always in soul. J

Send the gem of which I speak. Polish it, beautify it with thy spirit's capacity cherish it - lay its imprint on thy heart, treasure it with thy soul's might. Amidst life's turmoil treasure the gift I have sent you.

Keep it always in your spirit. It shall be thy happiness and assist you on the path of attainment. Ye ~~are~~ seven workers be as one in spirit and I shall send you help.

My blessings to you in unity.

worshippers enter. Let them place thereon the offerings. They must come joyfully singing aloud His praises, giving the gifts with song upon their lips. For the gifts given into His blessed Name are the greatest expression of a man's <sup>inner</sup> spirit. So approach the altar in song. Let the Hymn of Praise resound. Extol the blessed One —

Listen to the voice within thy heart. It is calling to thee. Listen and understand my daughter a day approaches, a day of light and night must follow. In the hours of night thy heart must light <sup>z</sup> thy path and I shall watch the silent but vigilant tomb of darkness. Dense night of darkness I fear thee not. I bear the lamp within my spirit. The darkness daunts me not, oh Father, my heart shall know its faith.

My message shall come ye warriors — Fear not the temple has its guardians None shall assault it without the guardians knowledge. I keep my vigil. My warriors shall leave their morning the buyers them to arms. Then shall they gird themselves and come out ready for the battle in my name Be blessed!

He knocks upon the portals of My temple, also he knocks loud and enters smiling, Thinking to win My warriors with his benignity But my guardian shall be on the alert and shall with a smile as meapen strike a dar into his cunning heart. He shall try thee with song he shall try thee with poetry, he shall try thee by flattery. Then thou shall arm thyself with song and poetry and flattery and confound him.
And into the pit which he has dug shall he fall and be entered for ever. Thou guard the portals

Thou guard the portals, thou guard the portals. (44) Two moons shall find him alert to the limits shall he contest the coming victory of My soldiers.
He shall molest as he shall assault, but let him find a wall impregnable. Match subtlety with subtlety He fights not with cudgels but with his wits then sharpen too thy weapons. But the battle is over The field shall be covered with vanquished warriors and the banner of the St. Michael shall be up raised above the battle ground. Soldiers of the white army thou are victors already marked, but the fight shall rage furious. Then watch, then guard, then be vigilant. In My Name you battle and there is only victory ahead.

Odomar

Guard well both institutions. Fight off attacks by keeping My Name as a talisman within your heart. You shall be conquerors. Guard the temple with good thoughts and keep calm during the raging battle. My leaders shall counsel you all and hearten you for future battle to come

Be calm, battle shall not be difficult if you prepare yourselves with My gifts. Strengthen your spirit be bold, place all your trust in Me and all will be well. Be true to your good thoughts. Let your intuition guide you. Be brave and firm.
 Have no fear. I said it.
