VISH Application · LLC "Artemiy Voronin"

Version of: 16 September 2026

This Policy sets out how personal data of users of the VISH Application is processed and protected, and applies in accordance with Federal Law No. 152-FZ of 27 July 2006 "On Personal Data".

1. The operator

The personal data operator is Limited Liability Company "Artemiy Voronin" (OGRN 1265000055297, INN 5031165139, KPP 503101001). Address for enquiries about the processing of personal data: i@artemiyvoronin.ru. This Policy is a publicly available document and is published at the permanent address given in the Application.

2. Legal grounds

Processing is carried out on the basis of the data subject's consent, expressed by conclusive action when using the Application (clause 1, part 1, article 6 of Law No. 152-FZ), and for the performance of an agreement to which the subject is a party (clause 5, part 1, article 6 of the same law). Certain processing operations are carried out to pursue the Operator's legitimate interests, provided that the rights and freedoms of the subject are not thereby infringed.

3. Categories of data

Identification data provided by the messenger service at sign-in: account identifier, first and last name, username, profile picture and interface language, to the extent that service provides them. User settings: the study group or teacher followed, language, appearance, notification preferences. Technical data: the date and time of a request, the address requested, the response code and the request identifier. The Operator does not process special categories of personal data or biometric personal data.

4. Purposes

Providing the functionality of the Application and recognising the User on a subsequent visit; storing and applying user settings; sending notifications the User has consented to; maintaining the operability and security of the Application and detecting and remedying faults. Data is not processed for any other purpose.

5. Means of processing

Processing is carried out by automated means. The Operator does not take decisions producing legal effects in respect of the subject solely on the basis of automated processing of personal data.

6. Disclosure

Personal data is not sold and is not disclosed to third parties, save where the law of the Russian Federation expressly requires it and save for persons engaged by the Operator to process data on its instructions under conditions of confidentiality. Databases containing the personal data of citizens of the Russian Federation are hosted on servers located within the Russian Federation (Yandex Cloud). No cross-border transfer of personal data is carried out.

7. Retention

Identification data and user settings are retained for as long as the account exists. Technical data is retained for no longer than thirty calendar days from receipt. Once the purposes of processing are achieved, upon withdrawal of consent, or at the subject's request, the data is destroyed within the period established by law.

8. Rights of the data subject

The subject has the right to obtain information about the processing of their personal data, to require its clarification, blocking or destruction where it is incomplete, out of date, inaccurate, unlawfully obtained or not necessary for the stated purpose of processing, and to withdraw consent to processing. A request is to be sent to i@artemiyvoronin.ru and is considered within the period established by articles 14 and 20 of Law No. 152-FZ. The subject may appeal the Operator's actions to the authorised body for the protection of the rights of personal data subjects or in court.

9. Withdrawal of consent

Consent to the processing of personal data may be withdrawn by sending notice to i@artemiyvoronin.ru. Withdrawal entails the cessation of processing and the destruction of the personal data, unless its retention is required by law, and makes further use of the account impossible.

10. Protective measures

The Operator takes the legal, organisational and technical measures necessary to protect personal data against unlawful access, destruction, alteration, blocking, copying and dissemination: separation of access rights, encryption in transit, limitation of the data processed to the necessary minimum, and logging of access to data.

11. Minors

The Application is not intended for persons below the age at which consent to the processing of personal data may be given independently under the law of the User's location. Where it emerges that the data of such a person is being processed without the consent of a legal representative, that data is destroyed.

12. Notifications and cookies

Notifications are sent only to the channels the User has switched on themselves and can be switched off in the Application's settings at any time. The Application uses technical cookies and similar local storage technologies necessary for its operation and for preserving user settings.

13. Amendments

The Operator may amend this Policy. A new version is published at the permanent address given in the Application and takes effect upon publication.
