

Terms of Use

VISH Application · LLC "Artemiy Voronin"

Version of: 16 September 2026

These Terms of Use (the Terms) are an offer by Limited Liability Company "Artemiy Voronin" (OGRN 1265000055297, INN 5031165139), a company incorporated in the Russian Federation, (the Rights Holder) to any person (the User) to enter into an agreement on the use of the VISH Application on the conditions set out below.

1. Definitions

Application — the computer program "VISH Application" and its web version, including all components, interfaces and accompanying materials. Rights Holder — Limited Liability Company "Artemiy Voronin" (OGRN 1265000055297, INN 5031165139). User — any person using the Application. Institution — the organisation whose timetable the Application displays and which is not a party to these Terms.

2. Acceptance

Acceptance of this offer is constituted by beginning to use the Application in any manner, including opening its web version or signing in through a messenger. From that moment the Terms are considered concluded in writing and have the force of an agreement. A User who does not accept any of the conditions must cease using the Application.

3. Subject matter

The Rights Holder grants the User a free of charge, non-transferable, non-exclusive simple licence to use the Application for its intended functional purpose, worldwide, for the term of the exclusive right. The licence does not include the right to reproduce, distribute, modify, decompile or create derivative works.

4. Conditions of use

The User undertakes not to interfere with the operation of the Application or place excessive load on its infrastructure; not to collect data by automated means without the Rights Holder's written consent; not to circumvent or disable security or access-control measures; and not to use the Application for unlawful purposes. The Rights Holder may restrict access for a User in breach of this section without prior notice.

5. Account

Identification is performed through an external messenger service. The Rights Holder neither receives nor stores the User's password to that service. The User is responsible for keeping access to their account secure and bears the risk of the consequences of actions performed using it. The User must notify the Rights Holder of any unauthorised access.

6. Timetable content

Lesson data is the Institution's data and is passed on by the Application as received. The Rights Holder is neither the author nor the source of that data, does not verify it, and does not warrant that it is complete, accurate or current. The Institution remains the official source of the timetable, and discrepancies are resolved in its favour.

7. Intellectual property

The exclusive rights to the Application, its source code, interfaces, graphical elements and databases belong to the Rights Holder. Nothing in these Terms is to be construed as a transfer of exclusive rights to the User. The Institution's designations are used for informational purposes and remain the property of their respective owners.

8. Provided as is

The Application is provided on an as is basis. The Rights Holder does not warrant that the Application will operate without interruption or error, that it will meet any particular expectation of the User, or that user settings will be preserved. The Application is not an official service of the Institution.

9. Limitation of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Rights Holder is not liable for lost profit or for indirect, incidental or punitive damages, nor for any harm arising from the use of, or inability to use, the Application, including harm arising from the inaccuracy of data received from the Institution. The Rights Holder's aggregate liability under these Terms is limited to the amount actually paid by the User for use of the Application, and to zero where use is free of charge.

10. Amendment and termination

The Rights Holder may amend these Terms unilaterally by publishing a new version at the permanent address given in the Application. Amendments take effect upon publication. Continued use of the Application after publication constitutes the User's acceptance of the new version. The Rights Holder may at any time suspend or discontinue the Application in whole or in part.

11. Personal data

Personal data is processed in accordance with the Privacy Policy, which forms an integral part of these Terms and is published at the permanent address given in the Application. Acceptance of these Terms confirms that the User has read that Policy.

12. Governing law and disputes

These Terms are governed by the law of the Russian Federation. The parties will seek to resolve disputes out of court; a claim is to be answered within thirty calendar days of receipt. Unresolved disputes are subject to consideration by the court at the Rights Holder's location, unless mandatory consumer protection law provides otherwise.

13. Final provisions

The invalidity of any provision of these Terms does not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. The Rights Holder's failure to act upon a breach is not a waiver of the right to require compliance thereafter. Enquiries are to be sent to i@artemiyvoronin.ru and are answered to the address they were sent from.
